Annual Fall Bible Conference Features Cedarville Dad and Alumnus

CEDARVILLE, OHIO – Pastor Mark Vroegop, senior pastor at College Park Church in Indianapolis, is the speaker for the 2017 Fall Bible Conference at Cedarville University. The conference is from August 21-24.

Vroegop will speak on “the power of sin and how to kill it early before it destroys the person.”

“The college years are an opportunity for both good and bad to influence a young Christian,” said Vroegop. “This is a crossroads time for these young people and a great time for them to learn skills that will help them make the right spiritual decisions.”

Vroegop hopes students pick up three key points from his sermons: (1) Learning the freedom they have from sin as Christ-followers, (2) Discovering strategies for how to lessen the control of specific sin issues and (3) Developing a greater joy in following Jesus.

Vroegop, a Cedarville alumnus, will have three children enrolled at Cedarville this fall. He also serves on the board of trustees.

“I wholeheartedly believe in the mission of Cedarville University,” said Vroegop. “The school was very formative in my walk with Christ, and I have such joy having my children in that environment.”

Located in southwest Ohio, Cedarville University is an accredited, Christ-centered, Baptist institution with an enrollment of 3,760 undergraduate, graduate, and online students in more than 100 areas of study. Founded in 1887, Cedarville is recognized nationally for its authentic Christian community, rigorous academic programs, strong graduation and retention rates, accredited professional and health science offerings, and leading student satisfaction ratings.
