Pioneers Claim 2004 NCCAA Crown

Panama City Beach, Florida- On a perfect day for golf, Malone College rallied from 7 shots down to claim the 2004 National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) Men's Golf Championship conducted on The Hombre Golf Club. Closing with a second round 299 the Pioneers' finished at 603 for the two-day event. That total topped first day leader, Indiana Wesleyan University, by one shot. IWU had a second day total 307 to go with their 297 from day one.

Spring Arbor University made a phenomenal run at the crown with an event best 292 total. The Cougars finished at 605 for Coach Bill Bockwitz who is retiring after this season. Following Spring Arbor was The Masters College (610), Bethel College (619) and Southern Wesleyan University (621). The low NCCAA Division team was Southeastern College who finished at 636.

Individual honors went to Ken Hyland of Malone, NCCAA Coach of the year, and Travis Hemsoth of Indiana Wesleyan University who claimed medalist honors with a 3-under par total of 141. Hemsoth led the 2004 All-American team and was joined by Scotty Jones, Malone College (144), Chris Tilbury, Bethel College (146), Chase Barnes, Dallas Baptist University, Seth Cotter, The Masters College (147), Mike Rider, The Masters College (148), Mason Crumpler, Southeastern College (148), Kyle Maury, Spring Arbor University (149), Matt Wabby, Malone College (150), Keith Cunningham, Malone College (150), and Aaron Morrow, Spring Arbor University (150).

This marks Malone's third NCCAA title as the Pioneers claimed the 1998 and the 1999 crowns. Ironically, the Pioneers finished runner-up in 2003 to The Masters College by one shot. Malone also earned another honor as it was announced that the 2005 and 2006 Championships will take place at River Greens Golf Course in West Lafayette, Ohio with Malone serving as the host school.

The NCCAA is an intercollegiate athletic association serving 105 member schools across North America. Headquartered in Greenville, South Carolina, the NCCAA conducts 22 National Championships each year while providing Christian service projects for its members to provide service through.
