FORTIETH YEAR NO. 29.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, JUNE 15, 1917

PRICE, $1.00 A YEAR

SUMMER SCHOOL NEXT WEEK.

The Cedarville College Summer School will begin its third annual session next Monday with an opening address in the College Chapel at 9:30 a. m. To this meeting the general public is invited. At the same meeting lessons will be assigned for the next day, and work in actual recitation will begin promptly on Tuesday morning at seven o'clock.

The following schedule of studies has been arranged: First hour, Bible, General Psychology, School Administration and Law, Economics, Arithmetic, English Literature, Beginning Latin, Cicero, Free Physics, Prep. Algebra, 2nd Year Algebra, Plane Geometry.

Second hour, Philosophy, School Discipline, Rural School Administration, Sociology, Geography, American Literature, History, Medieval and Modern History, Observation and Practice in all grades.

Third hour, Science of Education, Art of Teaching, College English, College Physics, U. S. History, Agriculture, Beginning Algebra, Observation and Practice, High School Methods, Beginning German, Oratory, Beginning French, Advance German, Solid Geometry, Observation and Practice.

Fifth hour, Educational Psychology, History of Education, Beginning Spanish, General Method, School Management, Advanced French, English Grammar, Physiology, Botany, General Science, Civics.

Afternoon, Manual Training, Public School Music, Piano, Voice Harmony, History of Music, Basketry, Domestic Science, Story Telling.

In addition to these courses training classes will be conducted for the pupils of the public schools in the Gymnasium. Work of all grades will be given so that pupil can either make up back work in the grade they have just finished or can do some advance work in the grade into which they will enter in the fall.

Those who will become members of such courses and continue regular in attendance will be rewarded by free tuition in basketry. Pupils in the high school who enter a trained class for two hours a day and continue regular in attendance will be given free tuition in any one subject offered in the summer school.

They may take music, basketry, or domestic science, manual training, high school studies, or college or normal work for which they are prepared. This offer will be withdrawn as soon as a sufficient number to form a training class has been secured. All who desire to avail themselves of this offer, should report at once to Professor S. C. Wright, as the training class will be made up of those who first report.

Five courses in manual training will be given every afternoon by Professor R. Cecil Burns, Principal of the De Graff, Ohio, High School. All young men who are preparing to teach should take this work in order to increase the demand for their services and raise their salaries.

One of the most interesting and entertaining as well as instructive features of the summer school will be the work of Miss Muriel Virginia Freeland, who comes the week beginning July 9 to give five lectures on the art of story telling and who every afternoon will conduct a story hour at 4 p. m. on the College Campus.

Miss Helen Oglesbee will enter upon her work this summer in the department of music, giving courses in piano, voice, harmony, and the history of music. Professor George E. Seigler will teach public school music.

The home economics department this summer will be under the direction of Miss Ethel Mumma, who has studied in the American School of Home Economics of Chicago, in the Los Angeles State Normal School and in the Ohio State Normal College at Oxford, Ohio. She is a graduate of the last named institution, and comes highly recommended. She will give courses in cooking, sewing, household decoration, etc.

The primary department will be under the direction of Miss Eva Mackay, who has studied primary methods both in Wooster College and in the Kent State Normal College, and has had wide experience as a teacher of little folk. She will act as critic and instructor of those desiring work in primary methods, as well as teacher of the children.

SUES HARPER ESTATE.
The George Dodds-Sons Co., Xenia, has brought suit against the Vinna Harper estate for $19,000. The firm previous to the death of the deceased contracted for a mausoleum, an entrance to the North cemetery and a soldiers' monument. The sum of $34 is asked for removing the body of the late George W. Harper from his grave to the mausoleum. The firm claims the work was nearing completion when the defendant died.

SOMETHING ABOUT THE IMMENSITY OF THE AVIATION FIELD WORK.

Few people have any conception of what the government is doing or going to do towards improving the aviation field in the Mad river valley near Fairfield. The number of buildings to be erected, the amount of material necessary, the removal of farm buildings, electric, telephone, and telegraph wires as well as the traction line, makes the story read like a mystery. The Osborn Local gives some of this information in the following:

Few people perhaps have any idea of what will be done in the way of buildings on the aviation field near here. And how all this will be done in a short period of sixty days is a mystery. When one thinks of 6,000 acres in a body, no buildings except those built for the purpose of the occupants, all fences taken away, all trees cut away, and all this country made a smooth plain, and then realize what work it takes to do this, will wonder if it can be done. The number of buildings of the work that is contemplated. The buildings will be built and when done will be the largest collection of buildings for this purpose in the world. They embrace:

Forty hangars 40x120 feet; 20 offices 24x134; 12 barracks 20x35; 2 hospitals 95x118; 12 mess halls 20x120; 2 power houses 35x75; 2 big steel water tanks; 2 school buildings 96x100; 2 quartermasters' supplies 66x125; 4 toolhouses 14x36; 2 guard houses 20x30; 2 administration buildings 40x80; 2 aero supplies 66x125; 2 aero repairs 66x201 1/2; 2 dope houses 30x66; 2 garages 66x201 1/2; 2 machine shops 66x125; 2 steel blacksmith shops 28x80; 2 post exchanges 40x62; 2 commanding officers' residences 28x31; 2 officers' clubs 40x75.

To build this it will take 6,700,000 feet of lumber 8 car loads of nails, 275,000 feet of building paper, 45,000 bolts will be used in the truss work, 776 sets of saws, 2,202 sheathed, papered and then sided. The inside will be finished with heavy strawboard and paneling. The heating apparatus will be complete and all the work in kitchens will be done in as well regulated and equipped places as the modern kitchen in a good home. Sanitary conditions will be the best and all equipment will be up to standard.

The spur connecting the Big Four with the Ohio Electric railway near the Weekly farm will be laid near Fairfield out into the field where the buildings are to be built. It is almost done. These are being laid for the rapid delivery of material. The original order of 3,000,000 feet of lumber was followed by an order for 7,700,000 feet. The lumber is being prepared in stock in Ontario, Canada and Dayton has been bought and will soon be coming in. The big ditching machines are opening up the fields. When complete they will be under roof almost 400,000 square feet of land covered with buildings. They expect to house 200 flying machines and have a crew of experienced airmen as instructors to teach these machines busy. It looks a good deal like business, working seven days in a week.

BARNUM & BAILEY CIRCUS IS COMING
Greatest Show on Earth Will Soon Greatest Show on Earth Will Soon

Once again the glad tidings are being spread broadly on the coming of Barnum & Bailey's circus. The greatest show on Earth, it is announced, will positively be exhibited within easy traveling distance this season and, as usual, a large percentage of the population will declare a holiday to visit the show.

The big circus will exhibit in Dayton on Wednesday, June 20. It is promised that nothing to compare with the present Barnum & Bailey performance has ever before been seen under any circumstances. Novel features have been imported from abroad and a program of events, thrilling, educational and recreationally funny, will occupy every instant in three days. Four stages, the rigging above and the hippo drome surrounding for more than three hours.

There is a new and gorgeous pageant entitled "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp" in which nearly 1,400 persons and one thousand animals appear in magnificent costumes rivaling the dress of the people of the famous "Arabian Nights" story. This will be followed by a host of acts in all parts of the great enclosure. There will be sixty clowns, a greatly increased menagerie of wild and tamed animals, four great herds of elephants, several caravans of camels and many recently born baby animals.

The free street parade, which will start from the circus lot at 10 o'clock on the morning of circus day, is entirely different from anything of the kind ever shown before. It will be three miles in length and there will be bands on foot, on horseback, and riding on top of wagons of red and gold. There will be six bands in all and they will be assisted by three steam calliopes and an electric piano. While the largest tent in the history of all circuses, the Barnum & Bailey circus promises this season to make good again its boast that it is the Greatest Show on Earth. Five railroad trains comprising 60 railroad cars will be required to transport the paraphernalia, and more than 750 horses will be used to transfer its wagons from the railroad yards to the show lot.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. W. B. McChesney, next Thursday at 7 p. m. Subject: Anti Narcotics and S. S. work. Leader, Mrs. Chas. Baum.

OHIO NEWS CUT TO THE QUICK

Mt. Vernon Elms voted to buy $5,000 worth of liberty bonds. Sam Morris, thirty, was killed by a train in the Columbus yards. Frank Smith was killed at Ashabula when thrown from a freight car. A man slashing his wife's throat with a razor, Frank Presley, Fremont, escaped.

H. Dow Henry, fifty-five, president of the Athens National bank, died of paralysis. Youngtown Jews contributed $20,000 for relief of Hebrew war sufferers in Europe. Local option election will be held June 23 in Clatsop townships, Union county.

Evangelical Lutheran district synod of Ohio elected Rev. E. F. Ritter, Lancaster, president. Charles Robinson, thirty, of Marion, was drowned in the Hohawk river, near New York city. J. J. Jennings, fifty-four, farmer near Delaware, was found dead in a building on his farm.

Mary Vleburg, thirteen, West Wheeling, was killed when she ran in front of a motorcar. Marion County Racing association will donate all proceeds above expenses, June 23, to Red Cross. Mrs. Peter Peterson, of Ashabula, was killed when she fell down basement stairs at her home. Lightning struck the Presbyterian church at Toronto and the structure was completely destroyed. Loss $40,000.

Six robbers escaped with $2,000 worth of copper wire after a battle with railroad detectives near Fostoria. H. W. Brown, editor of the Findlay Courier, has become postmaster at Findlay, succeeding George D. Dunathan. One day auto tour of Marion county netted 300 members for the Marion County Farmers' Improvement association.

Congressman S. D. presented his resignation from the presidency of the board of trustees of Antioch college. Albert J. Horn, director of public service announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for mayor of Lorain. CHILDSHOE won the over more than a dozen other entries for the location of the Ohio Wesleyan army concentration camp.

Roy McHenry and his party killed in Hamilton County, in an auto accident. Joseph Bodkins, ninety-eight, the oldest resident of Athens county, is dead at his home near Albany. He was a farmer for more than eighty years. Webster Johnson and Lester Johnson, brothers, were seriously injured at Marysville when the steering gear on their auto broke and the car collided with a tree.

Charles Adams Baxter, widow of G. B. Baxter of Columbus and a sister of the late John W. Bookwalter of Springfield, died at her summer residence in Connecticut. Wholesale poisoning of horses on three farms near Fostoria was attributed to a snake coming from William Whitman's barn, where three horses were poisoned. Lorain council abolished the office of deputy auditor when City Auditor George N. Damon refused to serve as clerk of the city council, leaving Damon with only one assistant.

Mozie Monnet and Clarence Smith, farmers, Waldo township, Union county, were bit and severely bitten by a horse believed suffering from rabies. The horse was shot. At Athens a score of women and children were waiting on a crowded grand stand collapsed on the high school grounds, where a pageant was being held. Four women suffered fractured limbs.

Because Mrs. Frances Spychalski, thirty-seven, Toledo, and mother of five children, would not elope with him, John Cielchan, twenty-seven, Detroit, fatally shot Mrs. Spychalski and then committed suicide. W. H. Tomlinson, attorney of Dayton, a Democrat, head of the blue sky division of the state banking department, was appointed state insurance commissioner, succeeding Frank Tazart of Wooster.

On account of the high cost of newspaper and other material used in publishing a newspaper, the Wake-man World and the Amherst Weekly News have combined, the joint paper being published at Amherst. Wheat crop prospects for Ohio, while they are 88 per cent of the average of the last ten years, are 8 per cent better than two months ago, according to the official June 1 report, issued by Secretary N. E. Shaw of the state board of agriculture.

Charles against State Highway Commissioner Cowan was lodged with Governor Cox by a group of men who insisted they are sufficient grounds for his removal. It is understood they relate to the alleged use of state property by Cowan and to his manner of awarding contracts. John I. Miller, Columbus Democrat, was appointed by Governor Cox as superintendent of public works, to succeed Frank R. Fauver, Lorain, Republican. Patrick J. Berry, Mt. Vernon, Democrat, was named head of the blue sky department to succeed W. H. Tomlinson. Randolph W. Hamilton, Columbus attorney, was appointed to the state civil service commission.

Watch for Patria by Vernon Castle on Saturday, June 23, at the Murdock Theatre.

WILLIAM D. HART.

William Dickey Hart was born March 27, 1842, on a farm near Ballymood county, Antrim, Ireland. He departed this life June 5, 1917, at the age of seventy-five years, two months and ten days.

He was a descendant on his mother's side of the McBurney's and Stariks and on his father's side of the McMillans and Greggs. He was also a direct descendant of the Reverend Robert and James Hart who died in the Bloody Persecution for the Cross of Christ.

At the age of twenty-two he was united in marriage with Anna King Stevenson, who departed this life June 25, 1884. To this union were born the following children—Martha Gaston, Mary Ann Gregg, James King, Hugh McMillan, Sarah Jamison and Margaret Stevenson, all of whom survive him except Hugh and Sarah.

He owned and operated a fine farm, known as the Bonnie Beas of Drama Best. Through sickness and other misfortunes he lost the farm and came to America in 1879. He settled in Greene county and lived in and near Cedarville till the day of his death. Mr. Hart was a cheerful giver, always giving to every cause he was always looking on the bright side of life.

The funeral service was held in the Grape Grove church and was conducted by Dr. James L. Chestnut, of Cedarville, assisted by the Rev. Smith. The deceased was held in the highest respect as was evidenced by the great number of friends and acquaintances who were present to pay the last tribute of respect. Mr. Hart was known by everybody in the community and many were the acts of kindness which he performed in his life. His familiar presence and his kindly greeting will be missed.

NOTICE KEBBLE'S BARGAINS.
In this issue can be found some special bargains of C. A. Kebble, the big clothing merchant at 17, 19, W. Main street. Men's and Boys' suits are especially low priced. You cannot afford to miss this sale.

Mr. Ralph Murdock has succeeded in landing one of the latest war pictures which will show the actual scenes at some of the greatest battles in France. This will be an educational treat and one of the big things the cities have been enjoying. It also shows that Mr. Murdock is trying to give the patrons of his theatre just what they would expect to see if they were in a city of 100,000. He is sparing no expense to bring some of these features and the price he will pay for the war film will probably exceed the expected admission fees of the night. He is offering the people a treat and the citizens of this community should make an effort to see the coming war films. The date will be announced later.

Plymouth Binder Twine

SAVES TIME AND GRAIN

Twine is a small item, but good twine saves a lot of expense in harvest time. Every time your machine is stopped the delay costs you money. Time in harvest season is always valuable, and sometimes extremely precious on account of the condition of weather or grain. Be sure you use the best twine—PLYMOUTH TWINE. Then you will be safe from the annoyances, delays, expenses, which ordinary twine causes. Plymouth Twine works perfectly in every machine. More of it is made and used every year than any other kind, because it is known to be the best and has been for years. Binds more sheaves with less expense, no knots, no breaks, and is guaranteed full length and extra strength. Get Plymouth Twine from the local dealer. Look for the wheat-sheaf tag.

Kerr & Hastings Bros.

When we consider the great war loans abroad we can feel that the five billion loan for this country is a small loan. Great Britain has an estimated wealth of 85 billion. Her last war loan was for nearly five billion, making ten billion since the war started. One person in every eleven in the United Kingdom subscribed to the last loan and the average subscription was $950. Germany's wealth of 80 billion. Her war loans to date eleven billion seven hundred and fifty million. Our wealth is 220 billion and population 100 million. Five billion for our share of the war is a small amount compared to our wealth and population. But it will likely be more before the war is over.

Each interest desires to pay a just share of the war tax, to do otherwise would be as unpatriotic as to utter some statement in favor of a foreign enemy. That congress will provide a tax on every industry no one doubts, how to have a fair tax is the question. With the newspapers it has been proposed to use the parcel post, this would give a rate of 3 cents a pound or fraction thereof. Where but one or two papers go into the zone the postage the Herald would have to pay would be $4.16 for the year. With this rate it would not be very profitable to send a paper for $1 a year. Every other publication is hit in this same manner so you see hundreds would be forced out of business.

Shopping Visit to Dayton Will Prepare You for Vacation Trip

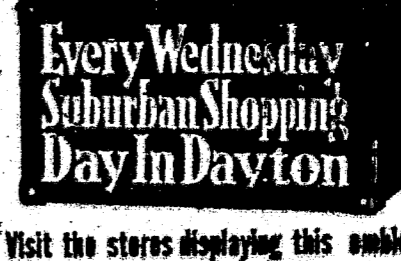

Emblem of Dayton Retail Trade Bureau

Fully half of the fun of a summer jaunt is in getting ready for it. Isn't that so?

"Father" reads pretty colored scenic folders, studies road maps or time tables and then talks very learnedly about these things. But for mother and the girls there's an additional problem;—what are we going to wear.

It's a delightful problem to solve—this question of what to wear—when such good answers are as numerous as they are in the stores of Dayton's great shopping district. Such charming variety from which to select!

You'll enjoy a shopping visit to Dayton, especially on Wednesday, Suburban Shopping Day.

Visit the stores displaying this emblem.

The newspaper people expect to pay a reasonable tax but of course would oppose such a rate as that. It would mean that publishers would have to refund the advance subscription paid and take the name from the list. This would apply to distant subscribers only. There is no telling what you will have to pay for your farm papers and magazines next year.

CONGRESS AND PROHIBITION.

What will congress do with the liquor question? There is considerable difference of opinion on the question among the members. There are those who insist on "national prohibition." Others who would curtail it in this and that direction. Already a measure has passed making it unlawful to sell any intoxicant to any officer or member of the military force while in uniform. That sounds good but is it not an admission that intoxicants are not a good thing for a soldier and if not good for an officer soldier in uniform are they good for them at any time? It is simply trifling with the question.

But the most dangerous proposition offered is that of increasing the tax for the purpose of more revenue. The present tax is $1.00 a gallon on whiskey and $1.50 per barrel on beer. The rate proposed now is $2.20 on whiskey and $2.75 on beer. If we want to know whether this is going to help or hurt the business find out how the liquor men regard the plan. It seems instead of opposing they are working with Secretary McKelvey in its accomplishment. One of their papers says: "That heavy additional taxes will be imposed on the goods handled by license is already seemingly assured, if nothing worse happens we will have occasion to rejoice." Surely they will wear white sackcloth and ashes. It would be the appropriate clothing for the friends of temperance.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course of the Moody Bible Institute. (Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR JUNE 17

THE RISEN LORD.

GOLDEN TEXT—John 20:16. "GOLDEN TEXT"—But now a Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept.—I Cor. 15:20.

The death of Christ made a deep impression upon the beholders (Luke 23:48, 49). Joseph, who seems to have been a secret disciple, obtained the body, and gave it burial (Mark 15: 42-47). In Mark's account we have the story of the discovery of the resurrection by the women, and Matthew tells us how his enemies dealt with that fact. Be sure to use a good harmony of the four gospels in presenting all of these lessons, else some important detail will be overlooked.

I. Mary's Visit to the Tomb (vv. 1-10). The Sabbath ended at sundown and the shops were then open, and Mary Magdalene was able to purchase spices with which to anoint the dead body of Jesus. There is strong probability that the women paid a visit to the tomb late on Saturday (Matt. 28:1, 2, 3). Starting the next morning, "while it was yet dark" (v. 1) they came to the tomb to perform this last service of love. Jesus had no need of such service (Matt. 16:27; 20: 10), but the women were rewarded by receiving the first glimpse of the risen Lord. There were five appearances on this first day of the week: (1) to Mary Magdalene; (2) to the "other women" (3) to Peter; (4) to those on the way to Emmaus; and (5) to the ten disciples, Thomas being absent.

None of these seemed to expect Jesus to be risen, for they had each failed to listen to and ponder his words. The extent and genuineness of the affection of the women is found in that they went to serve Jesus when apparently all hope had failed (I Cor. 13:8, R. V.). As soon as Mary saw the stone rolled away, she concluded that the tomb had been rifled, and hastened to report to the disciples (v. 2). This report of the women to the disciples was considered "as idle tales" (Luke 24:11). With intense eagerness Peter and John ran to the tomb thus reported as being robbed. John, the younger, reached the tomb first, but in reverence did not enter, only stooping to look in (vv. 4, 5). Peter, the impetuous one, rushes inside, and sees the linen clothes lying, and the napkin that had been about the head carefully folded and lying in a place by itself (v. 7). This apparently insignificant detail is one which is really significant, inasmuch as it shows that the tomb had not been rifled, leaving disorder behind. Instead of excitedly snatching the napkin from his face and hurrying it whither it might fall, he had quietly taken it off, and in an orderly way laid it aside. It is in such minute details as this that we see the greatest evidence of the veracity of this record.

II. Mary Weeping (vv. 11-13). The disciples returned to their own homes, and doubtless to the other disciples (v. 10), but the loving Mary remained behind, in this place made sacred as having housed the body of the Lord. It is natural for us to linger in silent meditation in places of our greatest revelation or of our deepest soul experience. Jesus had told his disciples over and over again that he should rise again, and it seems strange that his enemies should have remembered it (Matt. 27:63) and his friends not. III. Mary Weeping (vv. 14-18). There must have been an infection in the voice of Jesus, for upon the utterance of that one word, "Mary," she recognized her risen Lord. Joyfully she exclaimed, "Rabboni," that is to say, "Master" (v. 16), and would have poured out her love and worship at his feet. Jesus, however, does not suffer her to hold him fast. Mary must leave him, and tell the others. Literally, he says, "Do not lay hold of me but go and make known the glad tidings that I am risen again." The risen Lord must return to "My Father" and "My God," whereas the one who would gladly have remained at his feet must go to the brethren, and make known the facts of the fulfillment of prophecy and the resurrection of our Lord.

The bribed soldiers spread abroad the tale that the disciples had stolen his body. The later lives of these disciples, their heroisms and martyrdom, are evidence of the absurdity of any such act on their part.

The resurrection of Jesus is a vindication of his claim to being the Son of God. We do well to emphasize his birth, and to dwell much upon his death, yet both of these have no essential value apart from his resurrection.

Apart from this, the cross is the end of a failure. The resurrection demonstrated that Jesus Christ's redemption was not completed upon the cross. The resurrection is better authenticated than any other event in history.

The risen Lord called this weak band of disciples "my brethren" (Matt. 28:10). He is our brother still, and we are to proclaim his work of redemption, the proof of which is the resurrection, unto others who know it not, for this story is no fiction. It is the world's most tremendous and awe-inspiring and glorious fact.

Dr. W. R. McChesney delivered the address to the Xenia High School class Tuesday evening, the commencement being held in the First M. E. church. The building was crowded with an audience estimated at 1,500 composed largely of friends and families of the largest class ever graduated from the Xenia schools, 41 pupils. Dr. McChesney had for his theme "Patriotism" which was in keeping with the program of the evening. The address with some changes was the same as delivered here on Decoration Day and the large audience was carried away with his eloquence and frank statements concerning the war. America's position was for no other purpose than to see justice to all nations and that Germany should be held accountable for her conduct. President Jacob Kany, of German lineage, in presenting the diplomas took occasion to congratulate the Dr. for his wonderful address.
