WAKE UP, AMERICA!

What Will You Tell Your Children When This War Is Over? Learn Facts—Hear the Great Patriotic Appeal, "Wake Up, America!"

Cedarville people will soon enjoy the privilege of hearing the great patriotic war lecture, "Wake Up, America," which will be delivered in this city at the Opera House, Monday, April 15, at 8 p. m., and the admission is free.

The lecture for the most part consists of stereopticon slides and moving pictures. With each picture there is a reading slide that briefly points out the moral of the picture. And strong as are the spoken words of the lecturer, even stronger are the pictures themselves, depicting as they do, the horrors of the German methods of warfare. After hearing this lecture and viewing these pictures, one realizes as never before what it would mean to us if the war comes to this country. And afterwards one feels that no sacrifice could be too great that will insure the winning of the war "over there."

In striking and piteous contrast to the German viewpoint, the pictures show the American scene of peaceful industry and cities of France and Belgium. Everywhere is seen the blood-stained track of the monster, that terrible, destroying machine that spurs neither man, woman nor child, that respects neither age nor sex, that revels in lust and butchery that considers any agent of destruction justifiable—the Prussian Army.

An understanding of the reason for the German viewpoint is given by pictures that show how for many years the German people have been educated to believe that "might makes right," and that Germany is "God's favored nation." Monuments and statues of generals are shown lining the boulevards and occupying prominent places in public parks. Expensive paintings and tapestries commemorate scenes in former German battles. Everywhere the emphasis is placed on war. Germans have been taught that war is natural and desirable, providing Germany wins.

The early education of the present despised ruler of Germany is pictured showing how at an age when the average child is engaged in innocent play, he was being taught that his highest ambition must be to rule with the mailed fist. Well has he carried out the precepts of his teachers. Bismarck, Von Hindenburg, Bernstorff, and others are shown, all able exponents of the doctrine of "might makes right." There are seen school children chanting the "Hymn of Hate" and the "Prayer of Victory."

Maps show how strategically were built the railroads of Germany so as to facilitate troop movements. Then come pictures of Heligoland, the location of the Kiel Canal, the great Krupp works at Essen, and pictures of the German Army and Navy.

Then comes the call to America to awake to her danger. There are peals of thunder, and lightning flashes from back of the scenes. In conjunction with what has preceded, quickening the heart-beat and thrilling the nerves with a sense of what it all means, America awakes and gets into action with characteristic enthusiasm.

Then is shown our boys in khaki rallying to the colors. We see in moving pictures the boys of the regular army and of the Rainbow Division in France, the conscripts, state troops and those in cantonments and training schools. General Pershing and Marshall Joffre stand shoulder to shoulder. Our boys, with earnest and determined faces are seen marching down to the ships that are to take them "over there," as is Old Glory flying in the breeze and President Wilson, the man of the hour, pictures are also shown of aeroplanes.

There is a wonderful patriotic appeal to this lecture and the man who can see it without feeling his pulse throb and without itching with desire to do his part, is not only lacking in patriotism but is dead to sensation. Nothing is overdrawn, truth is observed always, but it would be impossible to overdraw actual conditions.

"Wake Up, America!" has been presented in Washington to an audience made up of many high officials. It was received with great enthusiasm and was conceded to be grand in its conception, dramatic in its presentation and effective in its purpose.

CHURCHES HAVE DIFFERENT HOURS FOR SERVICE.

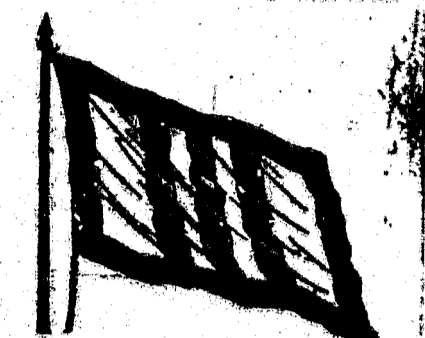

The three churches have adopted different hours for the morning service as well as for Sabbath school. Each one goes by the new time, but to meet conditions to the satisfaction of the members have chosen new hours.

There is one feature about it, if any member of the M. E. church does not arise in time he still has two chances of attending morning service. One hour later the R. P. church begins. If either the Methodist or Reformed Presbyterian member fails to connect, they can still find time to attend the U. P. church. The M. E.'s are about ready to come home when the U. P.'s are getting started on the morning, or what might be termed the mid-day service.

The M. E. services are at 10:30; the R. P. at 11; the U. P. at 11:30. Sabbath school is one hour earlier for each congregation.

LIBERTY LOAN HONOR FLAG

LET'S WIN ONE FOR CEDARVILLE

CEDARVILLE TOWNSHIP IN GREAT WORLD WAR.

It should be a matter of local pride that the town and township of Cedarville keep in touch with the boys who have gone into some branch of the service of the United States. The county draft board has official knowledge only of those whom it has handled, and this means that there is no local record available showing the men who have gone into the service other than through the draft board. It is for this reason that the HEBALD is anxious to keep in touch with all the boys from the township who have gone into the service.

There is a history of the county being written at the present time by Dr. Ernest V. Shockley, of Indianapolis, Indiana, the general editor of a publishing company of that city, who is working in connection with Hon. M. A. Bradstone, of Xenia, as local editor. Dr. Shockley is endeavoring to make a complete list of all the men who are now in the service from Greensburg and list them by townships. He was in the HEBALD office the week looking after data for his history of the town and township, and furnished the office with his list of the men which he has credited to the township, the same which is published in this connection.

If there are any additions to this list, or any names misspelled, Dr. Shockley would appreciate it very much if he could be notified of the fact. He may be reached at the Grand Hotel, Xenia. His list of 53 Cedarville Township volunteers and relatives follows:

CONVERTS RESIDENCE INTO BUSINESS PROPERTY.

Mr. Ralph Murdock, who recently purchased the W. M. Barber home, is converting it into a picture theatre, has given up that idea. Picture show places have to be built within the law and to remodel the building for that purpose would require an investment beyond reason for the town. Mr. Murdock had an out-of-town contractor go over the ground and submit prices and came to the above conclusion.

However the property will be converted into a business property, the entire front being changed and made modern. The interior will undergo such changes as will be necessary to meet the needs of a first class restaurant and soda parlor. Mr. Andrew Hinton has rented the building and will occupy it upon its completion, which will be as soon as the carpenters can do the work.

GOSPEL MEETINGS.

Under the auspices of the local Christian Service League, Gospel meetings will be held in the Murdock Theatre next Sabbath afternoon, at 7 o'clock, and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A special Gospel Team from Xenia, consisting of four or five men, who have been doing evangelistic work in different parts of the country, will be present and give helpful and inspiring talks.

ADMISSION FREE.

THIRD LIBERTY LOAN REACHED $30,000 ON OPENING DAY.

Cedarville Township came to the front on the opening day of the Third Liberty Loan campaign with a subscription of $30,000, the sale exceeding the expectations of the local and county committees. The local subscriptions total more than the first day's sale of any other town in the county outside of Xenia.

The county did itself proud also in sending in $19,000 as the first day's sale, the quota for the county being near $50,000. A meeting addressed by Joel T. Cloe, postmaster at Cincinnati, and Sergeant Gabel, a Canadian veteran, was held in Xenia Saturday afternoon. The local S. of V. band furnished the music. Various other meetings have been held over the county and one is scheduled for Cedarville, the date and speakers to be announced.

The quotas for the various towns as based on the deposits of the various banks are as follows: Xenia National, $34,000; Citizens National, $70,000; Commercial, $51,000; Yellow Springs, $41,500; Jamestown, Piquette, $30,000; Cedarville, Exchange Bank, $47,000; Osborn National, $44,000; Spring Valley, $16,000; Bowersville, $30,000.

The fact that the government is paying four and one-fourth per cent interest on this issue is proving quite an investment. Government bonds are regarded as the only absolutely safe investment that can be purchased in this country. Whenever a government bond is worthless, stocks in any other concern, even our gold and silver money, will have no value. Regardless of the fact that we may yet have numerous loans, the government has announced that no higher rate of interest will be paid in the future. You might as well lend your money to the government now as at some future time. If the bonds are not sold the government revenue will be secured by taxation.

It is to your interest and to the interest of everyone to lend money to the government to feed, clothe and support our boys in this fight for world-wide freedom. You have the choice of aiding Uncle Sam at this time or probably go down in defeat and then be taxed to pay your own debt for the benefit of Germany.

SELECTIVE MEN GO APRIL 26 OR 27.

The War Department has issued a call for another 150,000 men and more than 10,000 will go from this state, and the Green County Board has drawn a list of 36 white and 15 colored men from which will be taken the 42-43 class A men.

Those from this section in the list are: John Johnson, Fred Melton and Odice Broadie, the last three being colored. Elton W. Tindall, of Selma, brother of Louis Tindall of this place, is registered in this county and is also on the list.

COURT OF APPEALS IN SESSION.

The Court of Appeals opened a three-days session in Xenia Monday. Among some of the prominent cases on the docket were: Kie's Setz, et al., vs. G. C. Hanna; Charles Marshall vs. W. L. Marshall Appeal; Dayton Mutual Fire Insurance Co. vs. Harry Feeley; Thomas Cobb vs. Springfield and Xenia Telephone Company; C. L. Darlington vs. Pennsylvania Railroad.

MAY HAVE STREET OILING.

Since the winds have been high people can see the need of street oiling and we have had several inquiries as to when this would be done. Council has advertised for oil, but at the last meeting only one bid had been received. The matter went over until the May meeting, when it will likely be settled. What we need first is some street improvement before the oil is put on. Now that the road roll is in this section we might have a few of the bumps in the streets ironed out.

BUY SMILEAGE BOOKS.

For the Boys in the Camps—It Will Give Them Many Happy Hours.

Smileage is on sale at Richards' Drug Store. If you have a son, brother or friend in any of the camps or cantonments in the United States, send him a Smileage Book as a reminder of your friendship. For those who do not know about Smileage, a word of explanation is herewith given.

The Committee on Training Camp Activities, working under the supervision of the War Department, is providing clear, wholesome entertainment for the boys in camp, in the way of moving pictures, theatres, concerts, etc. These shows are staged within the cantonments by men and women who go from camp to camp, and who are hired and supervised by the committee above named. Admission ranges from 10c to 25c.

Smileage is sold in two and five dollar books. They have only the one dollar book, and it is not sent to the U. S. It is expected before long to extend this service to France, but at present it is confined to the U. S. Smileage is just the same as cash in the hands of a soldier, when presented at the door of these theatres. I have been asked by the Washington committee to supervise the sale of Smileage in Cedarville and vicinity. Further information will be gladly given on request.

W. C. T. U. NOTES.

The Woman's Division of the National Council of Defense, recently held a meeting in the State House in Columbus. The W. C. T. U. President, Mrs. Florence Richards, who is a member of this committee, was present, and gave her report of what the W. C. T. U. is doing. This proved quite a surprise to many in that large audience who were unacquainted with the organization. Among the things mentioned were ambulances and diet kitchens which had been sent to France two hundred French children had been adopted, besides relief work that was being done among French and Belgian children. Much relief work has been done already, and plans laid out for much more during the present year.

April 28th, has been set aside as anti-narcotic Sabbath, and the Sabbath Schools should make much of this day in order to counteract the pernicious influence of the tobacco trust.

In addition to all this we must carry on the work for State-wide prohibition. There are only some of the things for which we are to work. Surely there is no place for slackers in the ranks of the W. C. T. U. "Quit you like women, be strong, There's a world to make new. There's a call for women brave and true, So fare ye forth with a song."

MAY BE TAXABLE.

Investors who purchased Liberty Bonds Saturday in order that they might escape taxation of the money may yet be compelled to return that amount to the assessor. It was thought that money intended for the purchase of these bonds would not be taxable on the second Monday of April if the order had been given on Saturday before. According to the reading of the law the money will be taxable because the bonds cannot be delivered or are not dated until May 9. A ruling of the state tax commission will be necessary to clear up this point.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson 2 - Second Quarter, April 14, 1918.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES

Text of the Lesson, Mark 8:27-39 -
Memory Verse, Mark 8:35 - Golden Text, Mark 8:34 - Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The first nine verses of our lesson chapter tell of Jesus feeding the four thousand and is recorded also in Matt.
15:30-38. The multitude came bringing the lame, blind, dumb and maimed and cast them down at his feet, and he healed them, and the multitude wondered when they saw all these healed, and they glorified the God of Israel. Many of this great multitude came long distances, and had been with him three days with nothing to eat. He said to his disciples that he felt sorry for these multitudes, and would not send them away fasting.
We might think that with his recent feeding of the 5,000 the disciples would have said: Well, Master, thou canst easily do it for we have seven loaves and a few fishes, and the other day thou didst feed more people than there are here with five loaves. Their unbelieving reply was: Where should we have bread enough for this multitude? It sounds like the questions of Moses, "Whence should I have flesh to give unto all this people?" "Must we fetch you, water out of this rock?" (Numb. 11:33; 20:10). It should never be that we must have bread, or water, or anything else, for we have it, but a believing heart should say, O Lord, thine hand is never waxed short. I know that thou canst do everything, and there is nothing too hard for thee (Numb. 11:23; Job. 42:2; Jer. 32:17). Not heeding their unbelieving reply, he took the loaves and gave thanks, and through the disciples filled all these hungry people, and seven baskets full of fragments were gathered.
Then he sent them away with his disciples, and the Pharisees and Sadducees came to him tempting him and asking of him a sign from heaven.
This caused him to sigh deeply and he said, "A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it but the sign of the prophet Jonah." (Matt. 16:4; 12:39, 40). So he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side (vss. 10-13). While they were crossing, or after they had reached the other side, he warned them against the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees, and of Herod, and they thought he was referring to the fact that they had forgotten to bring some bread with them. Can we wonder that he said, "How is it that ye do not understand that I spake not to you concerning bread?" Then they understood that he was warning them against the false teaching of the Pharisees and others (vss. 14-17; Matt. 16:4-12).
There is no place in Scripture where I have, as yet, found heaven signifying anything good, and we saw in a recent lesson that he foresaw and foretold the time when the church would sadly corrupt her food.

In verses 22:38 we have the story of the blind man, referred to in a recent lesson, whom he took by the hand, led him out of the town, and caused him first to see partially and then clearly, very suggestive of his disciples who had not yet clear vision because of their unbelief. It is true of us all that we know only in part now, but we shall know more fully (1 Cor. 13:12).

As they journeyed from place to place Jesus asked them by the way,
"Whom do men say that I am?" Luke says that it was as he was alone with his disciples and praying (Luke 9:8).
There is no contradiction, for he was ever praying, by night and by day, by the way and everywhere; always in communion with his Father, and always pleasing him. In Ps. 100:4, if you omit the italics you will see that he is all prayer, and we are taught to pray without ceasing (1 Thes. 5:17).
When the disciples had given various answers then came the personal question, "Whom say ye that I am?" (vs.
20). There is no question as important for each of us as "What think ye of Christ?" or "What shall I do with Jesus Christ?" (Matt. 22:42; 27:22).
Unless we can answer from the heart
"Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God" (vs. 29; Matt. 16:16), we are not answering correctly. Only the Father by his Spirit can enable us to say this. Now see what it now means

PILES get immediate relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment.

to us thus to receive and confess him.
Sweet water and bitter should not come from the same place but it is too often so (Jas. 3:12). The concluding verses of our lesson (34-38)
set before us the cost of discipleship, but the reward for it all will be very great when we shall come with him in his glory (vs. 38). Salvation, eternal life, the forgiveness of all our sins, these are the free gift of God in Christ Jesus because of his finished work, and we have only to receive him and all are ours. (John 1:12;
3:16; 4:10; 6:27; 10:28; Rom. 8:24;
9:23; Eph. 2:8, 9). To be a true dis-

IMPORTANT

In view of the continued rise in the prices of all merchandise, the temptation to lower the standard of quality is proving too strong to be resisted by many retail stores throughout the country. This is a most unfortunate condition and very deplorable from the standard of the public.

It is of course an established fact that the unwary are easily beguiled by apparently low price quotations and by the ability of certain manufacturers to make shoddy things look attractive as long as the newness lasts.

In the interests of TRUE ECONOMY, we intend to adhere more closely than ever to our policy of placing quality first irrespective of price.

To our friends and patrons we recommend, BUY THE BEST. Do not ask, "What is the cost?" but rather say, "How long will it last?" Good materials wear well and always look well. During the war we will continue to do business with the tried and true manufacturers of quality goods. We will not resort to shoddy, nor will we allow misrepresentation by either spoken or advertised word.

Where You Buy Your New Suit

The blizzard from the north-east, that fell upon us Wednesday morning and lasted a good part of the day was truly unwelcome. Spring gardens may not suffer much but they will do little good under such conditions. There is grave apprehension over the prospects of the fruit crop. We hear that the mercury is standing around ninety daily over the southern states but Old Sol's rays are yet unable to overcome the wintry blasts that drift this way whenever the wind gets in the north.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR UNION MEETS.

The Christian Endeavor Union, composing the societies of Pitchin, Carthage, Pleasant Grove, Selma, Bethel and Clifton, met at the M. E. church at Selma last Sunday evening.

The evening's program consisted of vocal solos, piano duets and talks by the different members of the society. Selma had the highest average attendance, both at the Pitchin meeting and the one held here. From Selma 24 were present of the 25 active members; from Carthage 8 were present of 20 active members; from Pitchin 21 were present from 30 active members; and from Pleasant Grove, 15 were present of the 27 active members. None were present from Bethel or Clifton.

The next meeting will be held at Carthage, on the evening of the 2nd of June.

Sabbath School is now being held at the Friend's church in the morning at 9:15 o'clock.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Selma played the first base ball game this season last Friday, with So. Charleston, and won by a score of 11 to 9. The game was played here and a large crowd of rooters from So. Charleston were present. At the end of the first inning, the score was 0 to 0, but in the last half of the second inning Butler, of Selma, brought in a run which started the ball rolling and awoke the spirit of the team. Albert Powers, Selma's

Freshman pitcher, pitched the first four innings and started the Charleston batters with his wonderful speed. Charleston's pitcher, Andrew Donahue, had wonderful control of his delivery, and Selma found it hard to connect with his curves, although Selma kept the lead through the entire game, she was hard pressed for it. At the end of the fourth inning, Powell was placed in to pitch, with Butler catching, and kept the Charleston batters guessing with his new "mystery" ball. The exact date of the return game is not yet decided upon. Selma will be glad to book games with any other teams for the coming season.

*Newell Elder, Helen Calvert, Zola Elder and Winifred Wildman, who have been attending Earlham College, at Richmond, Ind., were home on a brief visit last week.

Edward Batton, Raymond Edmiston, and Phillip Wildman of the "Planet" staff, were in So. Charleston last Thursday afternoon on business.

The Senior class will have no class play but have contracted with an entertainer from Columbus to be present to furnish the amusement.

Unlike most other schools of Clark county, Selma school began recitations at 9:30 o'clock and dismissed at 4:30, the past week. In a short time it is expected that school will begin at 8:30 and dismiss at 3:30, although the question is yet to be brought before the board.

Miss Kathryn Scanland was a visitor at the school Tuesday.
