Bolling, Santorum, Sweeney Headline National Town Hall

CEDARVILLE, OHIO -- Sinclair Broadcast Group will present a national town hall on the opioid crisis on Wednesday, Jan. 30 from 7-8 pm in the Dixon Ministry Center at Cedarville University. The event is produced by WSYX TV (ABC 6) Columbus.

The town hall, “Your Voice. Your Future,” will be moderated by Eric Bolling. The hour-long program will focus on finding solutions to the national drug crisis. Joining Bolling in the discussion will be former U.S. Senator Rick Santorum (R-Pa) and Dr. Marc Sweeney, dean of the school of pharmacy at Cedarville University and a former president of the Ohio Pharmacists Association.

WSYX TV anticipates adding up to two more high profile panelists for the national town hall panel.

The town hall will be broadcast live on WSYX TV Columbus and selective Sinclair stations in Ohio. All Sinclair stations will live stream the town hall on their social media and digital platforms.

Bolling’s interest in addressing the opioid crisis stems from the sudden death of his college-age son 14 months ago. He is holding opioid crisis town halls across the country; Cedarville University is his first town hall event in Ohio. During the event, Bolling will interact with each panelist in a one-on-one format, while also offering Cedarville students and the general public the opportunity to ask questions.

The ticketed event requires online registration. Interested people in attending can register at Cedarville.edu/abc6townhall. No person without registering will be admitted to the event.

Located in southwest Ohio, Cedarville University is an accredited, Christ-centered, Baptist institution with an enrollment of 4,193 undergraduate, graduate and online students in more than 150 areas of study.
