About the Contributor (Optional)

Sarah Harris is an international artist based in Cincinnati, OH, who has shown work in Bulgaria and the United States. She is currently working toward her BA in Studio Art with a minor in Graphic Design at Cedarville University. Sarah is pursuing a focus in sculptural and conceptual work. Her work primarily focuses on worldview and addresses what it means to be human. Her latest work focuses on the dichotomy between comfort and vulnerability and challenges where one places their identity. Sarah will be graduating with her bachelor's degree in May 2020.
