Fess Opposes Bloc System

Senator-elect S. D. Fess, in a speech before the Quill club in New York City condemned the "bloc" system in congress and declared it to be "naturally selfish and based upon groups which may be classified over specific interests."

The different "groups" maintain headquarters in the Capitol. Each has its "lobbyists". Each conducts a well-organized and systematized propaganda not infrequently well supplied with necessary funds. Sentiment is manufactured to force Congress to pass or retard proposed legislation as the case may be.

"This modern tendency has at least two sources of danger. It lends itself to allowing a few leaders to report their view as that of the membership. The leaders too frequently are circumscribed wholly from narrow and selfish interest. Secondly, it develops a habit of delegating to the leaders the responsibility of the citizen who, instead of speaking, permits the selfish group interest to speak.

"It permits the most dangerous log rolling where leaders of various important blocks may get their heads together and dictate an entire program on a reciprocal plan."

The most active of the "blobs" in congress are the Labor group; the liquor group; the Antislavery group; the Farm bloc; and various others with more or less influence.

SEVERAL INJURIES REPORTED; HOWEVER NONE SERIOUS

Several injuries have been reported within the past few days. Charles Clemans sustained a dislocated shoulder blade, left member, while unloading logs at the railroad.

Floyd McHenry, an employee on the Sam Dillard farm lost part of a finger last Saturday while he was oiling the windmill. His finger was caught in the gears and badly crushed. Morris Peterson sustained a badly fractured arm last Thursday at the hands of a man named Martin. Morris was charged with reporting some trouble and was attacked by the fellow who first hit him on the forehead.

Dr. M. I. Marsh set the injured member as well as the other cases reported above.

REDUCED RATES TO COLUMBUS

All Ohio railroads will offer a special rate, amounting to three-quarters of the usual fare, to persons going to Columbus for Farmers' Week, January 29 to February 2. The rate will not be granted on the old plan of years past. This year all who want to go must buy one way fares at the usual rate. At the time you get a ticket ask for a certificate you should ask your agent in advance for the certificate in that he may have them on hand. These certificates should be signed at the University by H. C. Ramower and validated by a railroad representative who will have a desk in Townsend Hall, on the campus, all week. There must be 250 certificates validated before the half fare home will be granted.

TRUCE HAS BEEN DECLARED: "KISSED AND MADE UP"

There will be no more exhibitions of the manly art on the part of Larson O'Day of Jamestown and Ed Ballard, New Jasper township farmer. Each had a victory to their credit. It is said that O'Day promised Ballard at the conclusion of the second engagement when Larson was the victor, that he proposed to give Ballard such a clean sweep this time. (Ballard) came to Jamestown. It is said that Ballard went to O'Day, offered his apology for anything he had said or done and the same was accepted and the matter at issue between the two men has been dropped.

COLLEGE NOTES

Miss Wilma Arnott has resumed her studies after an absence of several weeks, having been called home on account of the illness of her mother.

Miss Louise Clark is able to return to classes after several days illness.

On Wednesday morning the Y. M. and Y. W. met as usual. The Y. M. was addressed by Rev. Mr. Harriman. Miss Dorothy Oglesbee led the Y. W. meeting. The subject was "what is worth while". Several very interesting and instructive talks were given.

Mr. Stanton, photographer, Springfield, has taken the pictures for the Cedarville year book.

The Y. W. girls secured a number of hair nets and are selling them now.

We again had the pleasure of seeing the boys and girls Basketball team win from their opponents on Friday night. The girls won from Springfield Y. W. Girls and the boys from the Omega Tau Psi fraternity of the same city.

The Seniors ordered their class rings Thursday.

ATTORNEYS WANT $1000 FOR FUNDERBURG CASE

Attorneys Charles Darlington of Xenia and Con Mattern of Dayton, have filed a bill for $1000 for their services in assisting in the prosecution of Ex-sheriff Funderburg, who had been indicted following the accidental shooting of Volney Nichols on Sept 5. The bill was approved by Judge Hornbeck of London, the trial judge in the case. It is said that the judicial fund from which this fee must be paid is now about $3000 over drawn. Besides this $1000 fee the two attorneys were, or are to be paid, $2,500, which was raised by a number of citizens who subscribed that amount. The four attorneys on the defense side have not filed their bill.

COUNTY AUDITOR ADVISES NO RE-APPRAISMENT THIS YEAR

County Auditor R. O. Wead following the law which requires that he recommend to the county commissioners the advisability of a re-appraisal of all real estate has advised against any such re-appraisal this year. He bases his belief that conditions are not such as to warrant the expenditure of such a sum as will be required to do this work. Farm lands in particular would not stand a re-appraisal this year.

MUCH SICKNESS

There is much sickness in this as well as other sections of the county. In some cases whole families are down with the grip. However there are no cases of pneumonia reported. One case of scarlet fever, Mildred Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Marshall, is reported at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bratton.

ENJOYING THEIR TRIP

Word from W. A. Turnbull and wife and Miss Bernice Wolford, who are driving through to Orlando, Florida, is that they are having a fine trip through the Southland. The only snow was in Pennsylvania. The roads are reported good. They are making stops along the line from Washington, D. C. south. Last word from them was at Raleigh, N. C.

We Should Have Gasoline Tax

Two bills have been introduced in the legislature that if passed will tax gasoline for automobiles. The tax proposed is one cent a gallon and to be paid at the distributing end. Many look on this proposed tax as the fairest for automobile owners that has been proposed.

It is proposed to divide the money between the municipalities, the townships and the county for upkeep of streets and roads.

Such a tax would be lifting much of the burden from land and property owners and placing it on the users of the highway.

The man that used the roads the most would and should pay the most. The big trucks, which consume far more than the automobiles, would pay more of their share of the upkeep of the roads.

The distant tourist that now travels over our roads free would pay something by a tax on gasoline.

To the average automobile owner the tax would not be great, providing that the auto was used for pleasure only. At one cent a gallon, gallons would cost him five cents more. At 20 miles to the gallon this would take him 100 miles. Five cents for a hundred miles is not much to any one person but would make a new source of income for street and road repair which automobilists want.

The grangers recently endorsed such a tax as have other organizations. The only opposition comes from the automobile associations, composed largely of city folks that now want the land and property owner to keep up his roads and streets.

Nine states have already adopted the gasoline tax. Ohio should do the same. Write Representative M. A. Broadstone your views on the subject. Also Senator Pence from this district. Send the letters in care of the House of Representatives or the senate, Columbus, O., as the case may be.

FIRST BILL KILLED

The first bill to be killed by a legislative committee was that of Representative Broadstone of this county. It was one of the first bills introduced in the legislature at the opening and ed or threatened another year. It should be given 15 years in the pen. The vote against the bill was 11-2. Another bill offered by Representative Broadstone has been amended to provide that any masked person who slays another while attempting to commit a felony is guilty of murder in the first degree. Originally the bill provided that where an attempt to commit a misdemeanor or felony was made was punishable as first degree murder if murder followed.

Miss Edna Osa Acton of Yellow Springs and Mr. Charles Wesley Shinkle of near this place were married by Rev. Brown of the Trinity M. E. church; Xenia, at 10:30 Wednesday. The bride and groom will reside on the farm. The bride was a former operator for the Springfield-Xenia telephone company, Xenia.

Word has been received here of an operation that was recently performed on Mrs. Jess Nesmith, formerly Miss Katherine McGiven, at the Miami Valley hospital in Dayton. Her condition was such that a blood transfusion was necessary. Three units were transfused, one quart given by her sister, Miss Evelyn McGiven.

Mrs. Link Jeffries, who was operated upon some days ago at the McClellan hospital, is reported as improving as rapidly as could be expected.

Illness prompted R. M. Rodgers, 76, Gallipolis, to kill himself.

"Lady, you're sweet enough to kiss," said one of two bandits who held up Mrs. Helen Seibert in Cincinnati. And he proved his meant what he said while his companion snatched Mrs. Seibert's purse containing $17.

Frank George of Plain City saved her life by rolling in the snow as soon as her clothes caught fire, after she had poured gasoline in the stove. She was badly burned.

Illness prompted R. M. Rodgers, 76, Gallipolis, to kill himself.

After kidnapping Milton E. Nash, collector, and his wife, three auto bandits in Toledo forced Nash to drive to an isolated point, where they robbed him of $1,000 and escaped in his auto after forcing Nash and his wife from the car.

Charles Brooks, 57, colored, of Beavertown, was sentenced to life in the electric chair. Brooks was convicted of the murder of Henry Burns, Rendville coal operator.

Body of a man identified as that of John Sabo of Beavertown, who the police allege murdered his wife and then set fire to his house, was found on the railroad track south of Dayton. The man was killed by a train. Frank Beldock was asphyxiated by gas fumes at Piqua.

Eleven men are being held at Toledo in connection with the alleged thefts from freight cars of goods aggregating $4,000 in value.

Search has been instituted for Rev. H. C. Tervehn, pastor of First English Lutheran church at Marysville, missing since Dec. 27 last.

Bible Institute, Chicago.

LESSON FOR JANUARY 21

THE PRODIGAL SON

LESSON TEXT—Luke 15:11-32.
GOLDEN TEXT—There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.—Luke 15:10.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Psalm 32: Luke 7:36-40; Rom. 7:14; Gal. 6:15.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A Father's Love.
JUNIOR TOPIC—A Picture of the Heavenly Father's Love.
IMMEDIATE AND DISTANT TOPIC—The Reach and Power of Our Father's Love.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How to Treat Sinners.

I. The Son's Insubordination (v. 12).
There is every indication that this was a happy home. But a devil entered it and stirred up discontent in the heart of the younger son. He became tired of the restraints of home. His desire for freedom moved him to willfully choose to leave home—throw off the constraints of his father's rule. He is the desire to be free from the restraints of rightful authority and for selfish indulgence. It starts out with wrong thoughts about God. At the request of the son, the father "divided unto them his living."

II. The Son's Departure (v. 13).
Having made the final decision he got his goods in portable shape. Having thrown off the restraints of his father's rule he eagerly withdrew from his father's presence. This is always the way sin works. He "gathered all together." When the sinner casts off his allegiance to God he takes all that he has with him. He not only wastes his money, but his character, too.

III. The Son's Degeneration (vv. 13-14).
He had a good time while his money lasted, but the end came quickly. The indications are that his course was soon run. From plenty in his father's house to destitution in the far country was a short journey. The sinner is soon made to realize the famine when his very powers which ministered to his pleasure are burned out.

IV. The Son's Degradation (vv. 15, 16).
He had no friends to help him when his money was all gone, so he was forced to hire out to a citizen to feed swine. It was quite a change from a sonship in his father's house to feeding hogs in the far country. So it is; those who will not serve God are made slaves to the devil to do his bidding (Rom. 8:15). In his shame and disgrace the prodigal could not even get the necessary food. The coarse food of the hogs was denied him.

V. The Son's Restoration (vv. 17-24).
1. He Came to Himself (v. 17).
When he reflected a bit he was made conscious that, though he had wronged his father and ruined himself, yet he was a son of his father. In the days of his sinning he was beside himself. The world calls the sinner who leaves off his evil ways crazy, but in reality he just becomes sane. If we could but get sinners to think seriously of their condition it would be more easy to get them to turn from their sin.

2. His Resolution (v. 18).
His reflection ripened into resolution. The picture of his home, where even the hired servants had a superabundance, moved him to make a decision to leave the far country and go home.

3. His Confession (vv. 18, 19).
He acknowledged that his sin was against heaven and his father—that he had forfeited his right to be called a son and begged to be given a place as a hired servant. The sinner not only should make a resolution; he should confess his sin; for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

4. His Action (v. 20).
Action was needed. Resolution will not avail unless accompanied with action.

5. His Reception by His Father (vv. 20-24).
The father had not forgotten his son. During the years he longed for his return. He must often have looked for him, for he saw him when he was a great way off. So anxious was he for him that he ran to meet him and fell upon his neck and kissed him. So glad was the father that he even did not hear his confession through, but ordered the tokens of honor to be placed upon him, receiving him back into a son's position. This parable makes bare God's heart. Every teacher should strive to present this lesson so as to show God's forgiving mercy—His willingness to receive back His wayward child.

Two Classes.
The race is divided into two classes, those who go ahead and do something, and those who sit still and inquire, "Why wasn't it done the other way?"—O. V. Holmes.

Taken From Evil to Good.
The righteous perisheth, and no man taketh it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.—Isaiah 57:1.

Assurance.
In our trials and conflicts we are assured of the tender sympathy of heaven.—Anon.
How Easy to Love.

Section 8. This resolution shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.
Passed this 1st day of January, 1923.

The members of the Research Club gave their annual banquet last evening at the home of Mrs. Carrie Crouse when members and their husbands and gentlemen friends enjoyed a very pleasant evening. About forty were present. The decorations were in green and white with green and white candles for the tables and place cards of the same colors. The printed menu cards were tied with green ribbon.

The following was the menu: Fruit cocktail; Roast chicken, dressing; Mashed potatoes, giblet gravy; Sweet potato patty, escalloped oysters; rolls and butter; Cranberries; Research Club Salad and wafers; Combination Sherbert and cakes; Coffee.

The following is the toast program: Toastmistress, Mrs. Hervey Bailey; Research Club, Mrs. Auld; Response, Mr. O. A. Dobbins; Town Celebrities, Mr. J. E. Kyle; New Year Resolutions, Mrs. J. P. White. There was a musical program and a reading by Mrs. Fraser.

OBITUARY

The following obituary was read at the funeral service of Howard Clemans, Wednesday at the M. E. church by the pastor, Rev. Steven:

"Remember now they Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the year draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; while the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain: in the day when the keeper of the house shall tremble and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened, and the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low; because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets; or even the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern."

Another golden bowl broken when Howard Clemans answered "here" to the final roll-call on January 15, 1923. He was born October 17, 1895, aged 27 years, 2 months and 28 days.

There is a reaper whose name is death, and with his sickle keen, he reaps the bearded grain at a breath and the flowers that grow between.

This time, a flower of youth yielded to the Reaper's sickle.

He was the son of Wm. and Cora Clemans. He was born, reared and educated in this vicinity. On Sept. 10, 1918 he was united in marriage to Miss Rosa Andrews. The ranks of the Odd Fellows have again been broken, he having become a member about two years ago.

He leaves to mourn his loss, a wife, father, mother, two brothers—Virgil and Russell, two sisters, Mary and Esther, besides a host of relatives and friends.

CROSSING THE BAR
Sunset and even star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep,
Turns again home.

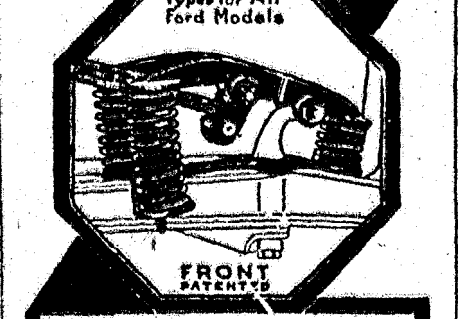

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that dark
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark.

For tho' out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

ATTRACTIVE FARM HOMES

Much Attention Being Given This Question By Those Residing In The Country. One Important Rem Not To Be Overlooked.

The transformation that has taken place in the appearance of farm homes both the exterior and interior, within the past few years has been marvelous. Today many country homes are as beautiful and inviting in appearance as those seen in the best residence sections of the cities.

Although tastes differ as to the choice of colors and shadings, and the interior decorations are subject to the whims of the women, the general opinion seems to be that the finishing touch to all is given by the selection of the Ohio State Journal as the news paper for the home.

For over 111 years this great publication has been a welcome messenger to the people. Your grandfather was no doubt one of the early supporters of the Ohio State Journal and gleaned
