Cedarville Parents Benefit From Master's Degree Scholarship Program

CEDARVILLE, OHIO -- Parents of current Cedarville University students can now take college graduate-level courses at a reduced rate through the university's new Parent Partnership Scholarship. The program will give parents a 15% discount, beginning with classes this summer.

"The purpose behind the Cedarville Parent Partnership Scholarship is to provide encouragement and a cost savings for a parent who is considering a master's degree," said Jim Amstutz, director of graduate admissions and student success.

Eligible graduate programs include:

- Master of Business Administration - online
- Master of Science in Nursing (Nurse Leadership in Healthcare Improvement, Nurse Educator and Global Public Health Nursing focus areas only) - online
- Master of Ministry - online or residential
- Master of Divinity - residential
- Graduate Certificates - Nursing Education, Global Public Health Nursing, Cybersecurity Management, Healthcare Management, and Operations Management - online

Cedarville University's graduate programs are designed to equip Christian professionals for career success and Gospel impact in business, nursing, ministry, and pharmacy.

Cedarville graduate programs are innovative, offering targeted specializations for in-demand career options that equip students to become leaders in their chosen fields. Curriculum for each degree is taught through a biblical worldview, and students have the opportunity to engage with accomplished Christian faculty members and peers.

Most programs are online, offer flexible scheduling, and help students build a global network of like-minded professionals.
