Cedarville Unveils Caring Well. Staying Well. Comprehensive Plan

CEDARVILLE, OHIO -- Cedarville University has released its Caring Well. Staying Well. comprehensive guide to help parents and students navigate the return to campus for the 2020-21 academic year. Students move into their resident halls August 14-16 during Getting Started Weekend and classes begin August 17. The semester will end on Tuesday, Nov. 24.

This 25-page comprehensive guide outlines Cedarville's strategies and protocols for living, learning, and working in community during this academic year. Guided by Philippians 2:3-4, planning is focused on balancing two priorities:

- Providing a vibrant residential experience for students
- Maintaining a healthy work and study environment for the entire campus community

Cedarville seeks to remain flexible and responsive, ready to adapt plans as needed.

Located in southwest Ohio, Cedarville University is an accredited, Christ-centered, Baptist institution with an enrollment of 4,380 undergraduate, graduate and online students in more than 150 areas of study. Founded in 1887, Cedarville is recognized nationally for its authentic Christian community, rigorous academic programs, strong graduation and retention rates, accredited professional and health science offerings and high student engagement ranking.
