"Now more than ever, health care needs strong Christian leaders," said Dr. Angie Mickle, dean of the school of nursing at Cedarville University. "In order to continue the legacy of equipping Christian students to impact health care by using nursing as their ministry, we must remain affordable. Affordability and high quality will help ensure sustainability as we must remain viable and on mission for kingdom impact."

Located in southwest Ohio, Cedarville University is an accredited, Christ-centered, Baptist institution with an enrollment of 4,550 undergraduate, graduate, and online students in more than 150 areas of study. Founded in 1887, Cedarville is one of the largest private universities in Ohio, recognized nationally for its authentic Christian community, rigorous academic programs, including the Bachelor of Science in nursing program, strong graduation, and retention rates, accredited professional and health science offerings, and high student engagement ranking.
