FARM FORCES DIVIDED

There is a wide difference of opinion among farm leaders on many of the public questions of the day. Take for instance the tax amendment for classification of property.

When farm leaders get the habit of living about legislative halls they evidently become inoculated with the same ideas and plans laid out by the lobby element.

It was only a few months ago that James R. Marker, head of the Ohio Brick Manufacturers' Association in a public statement connected one of the farm representatives as being a representative of the cement interest favoring cement roads.

Congressman Brand is flirting with the governorship and the giving of his salary increase may be a more effective way of getting the nomination than having to buy up county leaders.

With the lines drawn Mr. Brand, who usually keeps his ear pretty close to the ground, must have good reason to believe that the classification amendment will be defeated.

RADIO AND MUSIC

Radio is doing for music what the college, the university and the conservatory has never yet accomplished. These institutions have advanced training and learning but there has never been the opportunity of creating the desire for good music such as the radio has done.

You converse with those who have the radio and more than seventy-five per cent of them will state that they get more out of the radio musical programs than anything else.

There is nothing finer no more appealing to man than the pipe organ recitals. The pipe organ tones seem to reach the soul of man as does no other music.

The radio has become a great factor and is recognized competition to the theatres, picture shows and the churches. This is due to the fact that with the radio you can select from a wide variety of programs just what you want.

MOVING FORWARD

There are some who are so pessimistic as to believe the present generation will be the last to see and know the good old fashioned home.

The games that were enjoyed about the old fire place in years back may not be the games in all homes today, nor will the games of today be in use in years to come.

While we may have new amusements, the opportunity for the proper home training is just as easy today, and more important, than years back.

Our social standard of living has changed and we can no longer hope to see what was once the good old fashioned home, yet the home of today can be just as good and as far from evil influence.

MITCHELL IS SAFE

One of the big Eastern papers has made the prediction that Col. Mitchell of the government air force is safe and that court martial proceedings will amount to nothing.

This is as it should be. Because an under officer revealed conditions in a government bureau, how money had been wasted; how lives had been sacrificed; how incompetency had been smothered.

Secretary of War Davis, who has just been appointed by President Coolidge to succeed John W. Weeks, has announced a new policy.

More people would be favorable to the amendment with a fixed rate than the way it stands.

Sunday School Lesson

Lesson for October 25 PAUL IN EPHESUS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 19:1-41. GOLDEN TEXT—"For the love of money is the root of all evil."—1 Tim. 6:10.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Tells Idol-Makers About Jesus. JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul's Preaching Stir Up a Riot.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Diana of Ephesus. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Money or Christ.

Apollo, an Alexandrian Jew, an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures, had preceded Paul at Ephesus.

John's Disciples Becomes Christians (vv. 3-7). These 12 disciples had been taught only the baptism of repentance as a preparation for the kingdom of God.

Paul Preaching in Ephesus (vv. 8-17). Ephesus was noted for its wonder workers. If Paul's ministry was to be successful here, God must in an extraordinary way put His seal upon His work.

A Glorious Awakening (vv. 17-41). The Jews, being enemies of the gospel of the grace of God, were only hardened by Paul's earnest preaching.

In the Jewish Synagogue (v. 8). The Jews were Paul's inveterate enemies, his rule was to go to them first with the gospel.

By persuasion. It is not enough to come boldly with a reasonable message; it must be accompanied by persuasion.

In the Schoolhouse of Tyrannus (vv. 9-10). The Jews, being enemies of the gospel of the grace of God, were only hardened by Paul's earnest preaching.

God Working Miracles by Paul (vv. 11-12). Ephesus was noted for its wonder workers. If Paul's ministry was to be successful here, God must in an extraordinary way put His seal upon His work.

A Glorious Awakening (vv. 17-41). The Jews, being enemies of the gospel of the grace of God, were only hardened by Paul's earnest preaching.

Fear Falls Upon All (v. 17). News of the casting out of these evil spirits created impressions favorable to Christianity.

Gave Up the Practice of Black Arts (v. 19). This means forms of jugglery by use of charms and magical words.

Uproar of the Silversmith at Ephesus (vv. 23-41). (1) The Occasion (vv. 23-24). This was the power of the gospel in destroying the infamous business of Demetrius and his followers.

The Temple of the Goddess Diana (vv. 25-26). Demetrius, a leading business man, whose business was the stay of others of a similar nature, called a meeting and stated that much people had been turned from idolatry.

On the ground of business, saying: "This, our craft, is in danger of being set at naught." v. 27.

On the ground of religious prejudice. He said: "The temple of the great goddess Diana, shall be despised" (v. 27). His speech gained his end.

Turquoise's Old Use A Fourteenth-century authority states that turquoise protected horses from the ill effects resulting from drinking cold water when they were overheated.

Dressing to Type—the Right Hemline

This fall there is a diversity in the skirt lengths. The skirt that reaches about five or six inches below the knees seems to be liked best by those who have straight, slender figures and trim legs and ankles.

Parisian designers know that the mode cannot be made alone for this type. As one expresses it, "There is a hemline for every figure. The woman whose hips are large must have fullness—else when she sits down she will no longer be beautiful. For her I use plaits or circular lines. If the legs and ankles are not chic—I look to the length."

A dress with an overskirt often gives an illusion of shortness, as in the model sketched in the center. An uneven hemline is also smart and is good for the women who does not wear short dresses well. For evening frocks of transparent material, with slip several inches shorter than the dress itself, are much used. This hemline is also a happy compromise for one who does not feel dressed in an extremely short costume.

SENATOR RALSTON DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Lawmaker Succumbs on His Farm, "Hosier Home," Near Indianapolis.

Indianapolis.—Samuel M. Ralston, United States senator from Indiana, died at his country home just north of this city.

Senator Ralston's death was preceded by a long illness, caused by a kidney disorder. He returned from Washington last March in poor health.

On September 5 his condition became aggravated and he was ordered to bed. He could have been sixty-eight years old December 1.

Death came to the statesman at the place he loved best, "Hosier Home," located just outside the city limits of Indianapolis.

"I'm so glad and I am this child," he wrote Senator Ralston a short time shortly before his death.

It is said he refused to accept the Presidential nomination at the last Democratic convention because he had a premonition he would not serve out the term at the White House.

Samuel Moffet Ralston was born on a farm in Tuscarawas county, Ohio, December 1, 1857.

Through all of his civic and community life Mrs. Ralston, whom he married in 1880, and who was Jennie Craven of Center Valley before her marriage, took an active part.

ALL THERE IS IN RADIO!

FATHERS and mothers and sons and daughters sit at home with one hand on the Day-Fan Radio single dial control, and skip from state to state, picking from the broadcasting programs the full beauty of the selections they like best.

If a station is numbered 400 in the news, it's numbered 400 on the Day-Fan 5 dial! Could anything be easier to use?

And how they do come in! What beauty there is in the deep boom of the cello, in the high lark-like notes of the coloratura soprano! "That piano might be in the next room" we overheard a Day-Fan listener say.

Well, we don't have to tell people what the Day-Fan will do. We just ask them to come in and let the set do its own talking. If you want a radio at moderate price, which will bring in all that radio has to offer from all over the United States—if you want radio service with the exactness of a dial telephone—come in and hear a Day-Fan tonight.
