APPEAL TAKEN FOR ACCOUNTING IN ELIZABETH LYTLE ESTATE

Judge R. L. Gowdy, Executor, Finds Troublesome
Case In Own Court—Protested Having Bankbook Balanced at Hearing.

The famous Lytle case which has been in controversy for many months and has been in the process of settlement by the executor, Judge R. L. Gowdy, for nearly seven years, has been appealed from Probate Court to Court of Common Pleas, over which Judge Gowdy presides. An accounting is asked for and this the executor has refused to give. It is said to be the first case in the history of Greene County Courts where a Judge as an executor or administrator had to be forced to make an accounting.

James B. Watt acting for his son, Kenneth Watt, Pittsburgh, and his daughter, Bessie Benson, Boston, has appealed from the Probate Court to the Court of Common Pleas after an accounting had been asked for from the executor, Judge R. L. Gowdy.

The case has attracted not only county-wide interest, but among the legal fraternity in adjoining counties. Chief Justice Marshall of the Ohio Supreme Court will assign another judge to hear the appeal.

During the term of J. C. Marshall as probate judge, an effort was made to get an accounting but the case was not brought to a decision until October 14, 1925 when Probate Judge S. C. Wright passed on the motion and denied an order for opening the case for an accounting.

At that hearing it developed that Judge Gowdy, as executor protested having the estate bankbook balanced. The fact was brought out that Judge Gowdy had cashed a Liberty bond and same was placed to credit of estate account in Xenia National Bank. The Judge disputed the bank records. In court and Probate Judge Wright ordered the bankbook balanced which showed about $475 in the fund.

It was also contended that Judge Gowdy had received assets of the estate after making what was supposed to be a final account and that he had made disbursements from the estate bank account.

There is said to be one share of Pure Oil Company stock yet in the name of the estate that had not at the time been offered to either of the heirs.

With the assets of the estate in his possession and funds sent Judge Gowdy as executor, by Mr. Watt, the inheritance tax was unpaid for several years.

The heirs have asked for an accounting of the business of the estate. It was by correspondence from the Pure Oil Company that it was learned that one share had not been transferred and was in the name of the estate.

Grand Jury Held Session Monday

Four indictments were returned by the grand jury Monday.

Raymond Smith, 26, colored, was indicted on three charges of forgery. He is alleged to have passed or attempted to pass forged checks on Xenia and Cedarville merchants.

An indictment was returned against Marvin Ringer on a charge that in order to collect a milk bill due him, he represented himself to be another person, in a telephone call, and had two turkeys valued at $14 delivered him by Green Brothers, Xenia, keeping the birds for the milk bill.

Eight cases were ignored by the jury.

The Paper From the Old Home Town

By JOSEPH W. GANNON

At evening when the work of day is o'er,
And for a bit of reading I sit down,
The reading I do first and which I like the most
Is the paper from my old home town.

I know what's going on back there at home,
In Arcady where I first trod the ground,
For news of it I thirst, and always get it first
In the paper from my old home town.

I like to think of those I used to know,
The boys and girls with whom I once went 'round;
I'm posted on their doings, their travels and their wooings
By the paper from my old home town.

At times when I go back and meet old friends,
Who tell me news of Smith, or Jones or Brown,
I tell them that I know it, because I read about it
In the paper from my old home town.

If you have moved away from former scenes
In search of greater riches or renown,
To keep old memories bright and gain a new delight
Read the paper from your old home town.

NEW OFFICIALS SWORN IN MONDAY

OHMER TATE

Ohmer Tate is now sheriff of this county, having been sworn in Monday, along with his deputy, George F. Sugden. Alonzo Edwards, will be the county dog catcher under the direction of Sheriff Tate. George Spencer, former dog catcher, will be an extra deputy.

Morris Sharp, retiring sheriff vacated the Sheriff's residence, Monday and Sheriff Tate moved into the county residence provided for the sheriff. Mrs. Tate will be matron of the institution.

Seventeen county prisoners and one federal prisoner were turned over to the custody of the new official. Other county officials to take their office officially with the new year are County Commissioner Herman Eavey, Prosecutor, J. C. Marshall, and Dr. Frank Chambliss, coroner, who succeeds Dr. R. L. Haines.

Edward Flanagan On Retired List

Edward Flanagan has been a very busy man for fifty-two years. Monday he was without a job but he had a fine record that no man could take from him.

It came about this way. Mr. Flanagan had been placed on the Roll of Inmates with a pension by the Pennsylvania Railroad after nearly 15 years' service.

Mr. Flanagan was born on Staten Island, N. Y. on December 15, 1866 and had reached the age of retirement, 70. When he was quite young, his family moved to Ohio and settled at West Jefferson. In 1875, at the age of 9, he entered the Pennsylvania Railroad service as a trackman under the late Martin Carroll. He also served in the same capacity under the veteran James Kehoe.

In 1898, Mr. Flanagan was promoted to track foreman and transferred to Linwood and from there to Cincinnati until 1911, when he was transferred to Cedarville. Mr. Flanagan stood faithfully by his company in the trying times during strikes in Cincinnati, when rail property was burned as well as the courthouse. He has a record for faithful service that should be a comfort to him in his declining days.

At present despite his age he enjoys good health. He will remain in Cedarville until spring when he expects to move to West Jefferson, his former home.

Mother Claims Son Injured When Young

Mrs. Elizabeth Halterman, Columbus, mother of Leo Halterman, who is charged with first degree murder for the death of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Halterman, near South Solon, is to make a fight to have her son declared insane and thus save him from the electric chair. She says the boy was kicked by a horse when seven years of age, and again when 13 and that he was run over once by a farm wagon, with injury to his skull. Leo is charged with one of the most brutal murders in the history of the state.

GROCERY STORE CHANGE MADE MONDAY; NEW PARTNER

The F. B. Thomas grocery and meat store was involved Monday under a sale contract made some weeks ago, and Mr. Charles H. Crouse is now a member of the firm of Thomas & Crouse. Mr. Crouse was for a number of years engaged in the retail and wholesale meat business and is at home with a white apron around a meat block. Mr. Crouse has moved to the Lemons' property on South Main street, which he purchased.

SAVEY RE-ELECTED

In the organization of the county commissioners, Monday, Herman Savey was chosen president of that body for the third time.

NEWS BOARD FROM COUNTY MELTING POT

In the reorganization of the Xenia City Commission, Monday, McKey, has been chosen to that body.

The many friends of Judge H. I. Smith over the county will be glad to know that he is to be out after suffering a slight stroke several days ago.

Mrs. Mary Jolley died at the county infirmary Monday, Sunday from a cerebral hemorrhage. The deceased was for many years a resident of Yellow Springs. Burial was held from the Yellow Springs M. E. church, Tuesday, with Rev. Joseph W. Patton officiating. Burial at Eaton.

Carl Bloom, assistant manager of Jobe Brothers Company, has resigned to accept a position as traveling salesman for the Chicago Silk House.

Paul Baker, alias "Blaker", 17, by the Xenia police, has a lengthy list of juvenile cases. Some time ago Baker was taken to Xenia from Cincinnati but released on a promise to go to the youth center for a number of weeks on the Henry Miller farm. He is said to have attempted with a half-brother, Shew, to attempt a hold up on Cedarville on December 24 but failed instead of stopping, speaking of his car. He is said to have been a colored boy in the boy has been turned over to the Wright, who will care for him.

Frank Stankovic, who has figured in numerous cases, has been returned to prison to serve a three-month term for carrying concealed weapons while on parole. Stankovic was taken from the Dayton jail after he had been arrested by a Dayton police officer.

Mary E. Grooms is in suit for divorce charges that her husband, Oscar S. Grooms, had bought her but one dress since their marriage in 1908. Cruelty and gross neglect of duty is also charged. She asks custody of the children, household goods and alimony.

The Lodeleman Stewart general store at Zimmerman, was entered by burglars last Friday night and about $55 in change was taken. Frank Hilldebrand, tenant on the Ed Ferguson farm, had a Ford stolen that same night, and it is thought the thieves took the car to make their escape. The car was found later at the Marcus Shoup farm on the Dayton pike with the gasoline tank empty.

Suggests Permanent Auto Registration

A plan for making automobile licenses permanent rather than annual has been proposed by A. J. Thatcher, Franklin county auditor, who suggests legislative action along that line. The plan proposed would provide that an automobile owner retain the same license number and tags as long as he owned a car, regardless of make or age. The annual fee would be payable throughout the year as are taxes, with similar penalties for delinquents. Thatcher says the state would save $20,000,000 in ten years by his plan and automobile owners would not have the trouble of having to secure tags the first of each year.

HERE IS NEWS FOR ALL AUTOMOBILE OWNERS

No excuse will be worthwhile after Saturday if you as an owner of an automobile, truck, motorcycle, trailer or other automotive conveyance had not the 1927 license tag after Saturday, January 8. Business will pick up in Mayor's court Monday morning for all offenders. There can be no excuse offered for not having tags. In most cases other automobile and truck owners have secured licenses. The negligent must secure them at once or stand for a penalty.

Mr. Carl Spracklin has moved to the Lee Rice farm near Waynesville. Mr. Victor Binswanger recently gave up this farm to take the C. H. Crouse place on the Columbus pike.

Mr. H. W. Evans of Dayton was in town Wednesday on business. Mr. Evans reports that he has sold out his grocery and luncheon business in his city but expects to enter business in the near future.

SPONSORSHIP FOR FOREIGN GIRL

Stranoush Zohravian

As a result of the campaign for the Near East Relief under the direction of Mr. H. G. Funsett, local chairman, Cedarville contributed to this worthy cause the sum of $110.10 and according to advice from Calvitt Clarke, Cleveland, state director of this movement, Cedarville and the community, has been granted a sponsorship of a child in the Near East.

A sponsorship costs $100 a year. It does not mean that the community is obligated in any way, but we should be proud to have a part in this great work. With this sponsorship Cedarville and community, has a direct interest in educating a worthy girl in that distant land.

The Herald presents a likeness of Stranoush Zohravian who has been assigned to Cedarville under the sponsorship. She was born about 1914 at Aghdja-kala Village, Etchmiadzin and is now in an orphanage at Sevresky. She will need sponsoring until she is 16 years of age to receive food, clothing, shelter and training for self-support and future usefulness.

Stranoush has exceptionally clear and fine skin and naturally curly black hair. Her father died during an epidemic in her village. Her mother was still living but when the Turks came and looted the house, the mother died of fright. The girl was placed in the orphanage by her uncle, her top older brother but does not see him.

When she has time she knits, makes lace and plays games.

Cedarville should consider it a rare privilege to sponsor this young girl not only this year, but the four years to complete her education.

Many contributed small amounts this year not knowing what use was to be made of the money other than for general relief. Next December on Golden Rule Sunday we can easily repeat what was done this past December.

"He who gives a child a treat,
Mixes joy-bells ring in Heaven's Street,
And he who gives a child a home
Builds palaces in Kingdom Come."
—John Masfield

Farm Leaders Will Speak In London

T. H. Sparks, Ohio State University, will give a talk on "The Corn Rorer Situation in Ohio" at the morning session of the Madison County Farm Bureau annual meeting Saturday in London. Mr. O. E. Dobbins, one of the Master Farmers in Ohio, will also be on the program for a talk. Mr. O. E. Bradute was announced for the program but was unable to be recent.

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF '23 HOLDS REUNION THURSDAY

The Class of '23 Cedarville High School enjoyed a class reunion at the home of Mr. Willard Barlow, Clark street, Thursday evening, December 30th. A delightful three-course dinner was served at six-thirty after which cards and music were enjoyed. The following guests were present: Misses Mary Townsley, Dorothy Wilson, Alberta Owens, Elizabeth Creswell, and Helen Hiffe, and Messrs. Ward Creswell, Ralph Baker, Gordon Kyle, Ernest Gibson, and the host, Willard Barlow.

NOTICE TO MOTORISTS

At council meeting council's attention was called to the fact that a few motorists had not observed the closing of part of Bridge street for the pleasure of children in crossing. This was done to keep children from other streets with sleds. Complaints were made that autoists had driven over yards to travel that street. A warning has been given that violators in the future will be taken up and given a fine and costs.

AGED WOMAN DIED MONDAY FROM BODILY BURNS IN HER OWN HOME

Sad Ending For Unfortunate Woman Who Was Alone and Without Aid at Proper Time—
Died at Home of A. D. Townsley.

Flames from an open gas stove ignited the clothing of Mrs. Joanna Townsley, past 80, at her home last Sabbath morning, which cost her life. While dressing she stooped over the burning clothing as best she could but finally cried for help. Miss Buck, who nurses Mrs. Townsley, in rooms adjoining heard the cry for aid and responded and tore as much of the burning clothing from Mrs. Townsley's body as was possible.

Miss Buck immediately summoned Drs. M. E. Marsh and J. O. Stewart who dressed the wounds and aided in moving the victim to the home of her son, Mr. A. D. Townsley of South Main street. Later in the day Mrs. Townsley became worse and the end came about one o'clock Monday morning.

The deceased was born in Greene county near Xenia and had been a lifelong resident except a few years she resided in the West. For twenty-four years she has been a resident of Cedarville. Her husband, the late Ira Townsley, died in 1914. In early life Mrs. Townsley taught in the local public schools. She was a member of the United Presbyterian church and one devoted to the work of the church.

The deceased is survived by three sons, Stewart, Cincinnati; Ralph, Dayton; and Arthur, of this place besides ten grand children and three great grand children, and two brothers-in-law, Rev. Ralph Lackey, Carlisle, Iowa; and William Sears, of Dayton, O.

The funeral was held from the U. P. church, Tuesday afternoon, at 1:30, the services being in charge of her pastor, Rev. K. A. Jamieson. Interment took place at Woodland cemetery, Xenia.

City School Boards Don't Like Decision

The recent suit relative to the village street program in which the school boards of the various cities and villages were held liable for the cost of the program has caused a pale of gloom in many sections of Ohio with school boards but was good reading for cities and villages where the program was in the past paid for such improvement, unimpaired perhaps of what was done.

The Cincinnati Times-Star has the following to say: "Hundreds of thousands of dollars may have to be expended by the Board of Education, because of a recent decision of the Ohio Supreme Court. The attention of the city officials was directed to the case by Moses Blau, special examiner, who received it from State Auditor Tracy."

It means that properties owned or controlled by the Board of Education will have to pay assessments for all street, sidewalk, sewer, water mains and boulevard lighting.

Only Twenty Cents Per Day is Paid for Food for Average Insane Patient in Ohio

This is the sixth of a series of articles that will appear each week in this newspaper dealing with Ohio's problem of increasing insanity. These articles are sponsored by the Ohio Association for the Welfare of the Mentally Sick, which has but one objective, namely, more scientific and more humane treatment of mentally sick patients in state hospitals and the rapid rehabilitation of these unfortunate.

Can you appreciate what it would mean if some loved one of your should become mentally sick and it should become necessary to send him to a hospital and be placed under the care of a $35 to $45 a month unskilled, untrained attendant? It is not humanly possible to obtain the high-grade type of nursing service that the mentally sick are entitled to for the small wage that is paid.

Food is another item entering into the per capita cost price. To have a low per capita cost price the food must be low in both quality and quantity. The average paid out for food per day per patient in the states investigated follows: California, 15c; Michigan, 20c; Pennsylvania, 32c; Massachusetts, 17c; New York, 24c; Colorado, 16c; Indiana, 14c; New Jersey, 25c. Ohio will run under 20c per day per patient.

MORE FOR PRISONERS
A recent article appeared in the newspapers stating that the jail at Cleveland is permitted 45c a day for ordinary prisoners and 60c per day for federal prisoners.

If you will divide the amount of loved each day by three, you will then get the amount of money that is paid for each meal. Why should the mentally sick be thus starved? They are victims of a system that holds the cost price per day as the most important thing in the management of our state institutions.

MAINTENANCE CHARGES
There are other items entering into per capita cost price, among them general maintenance, which asks as follows: California, 14c; Michigan, 21c; Pennsylvania, 45c; Massachusetts, 24c; New York, 35c; Colorado, 15c; Indiana, 11c; New Jersey, 21c. This includes clothes, general hand equipment and falling into consideration any new projects.

Another item is that of fuel, light and water supply, on which we have the following figures: California, 4c; Michigan, 6c; Pennsylvania, 7c; New York, 10c; Colorado, 6c; Indiana, 9c; New Jersey, 7c.

The development of our state institutions for the care of the mentally sick in the last 65 years has revolved itself into an economic cost price problem, with small regard for the welfare and to rehabilitation of those for whom these institutions were created—the mentally sick.

The names of these institutions have been changed to "hospitals" but that is the only change. Their personnel and their equipment from one year to the other is simply the personnel and the equipment of a large jail or penitentiary.

(To Be Continued Next Week)

JUST A SUGGESTION

The Ohio Legislature is now in session and you are given the promises that usually are put out. A short session, economy, etc., are played strong as in the past.

We imagine that a perfect panic would be found among legislative members if one were to propose as a matter of economy that a few of the ten or twelve thousand state employees be dropped from the pay roll.

Victim of a complication arising out of large production with prices low and indications for still lower levels.

The forecaster made wise by experience will not overlook that strong influence or underestimate the possibilities it holds.

There can be no high degree of general prosperity with agriculture troubled, a fact known to all students and observers.

An appreciation of these facts has caused much attention to be given to the various measures proposed for farm relief that have been introduced in Congress.

The present year has had a fairly generous measure of prosperity for many lines of business.

MAN AND HIS SOUL

Man without a soul would be worth about 98 cents on the open market. That is what the chemicals that go to make up a man would cost.

The chief physical elements in a man are oxygen, carbon, hydrogen, calcium, phosphorus, potassium, sulphur, chlorine, sodium, magnesium, and iron.

Oxygen forms about 65 per cent of a man standing five feet eight inches high and weighing 154 pounds.

Science can tell where these chemicals are found and in what proportion they exist.

It is the possession of what is termed a soul that makes a man. Without it, man is worth 98 cents.

1927 TO BE BANNER YEAR

President Coolidge believes 1927 will be a banner year and that the business of the country is fundamentally sound. His information, coming from government sources, leads him to expect continued prosperity during the coming year.

Among the things leading him to this viewpoint are the increase in employment recently reported in New York, Pennsylvania and some of the industrial states.

At present prosperity exists in all parts of the country except the wheat and cotton sections.

Work is plentiful, the President understands, and the people are receiving high wages which are being spent generously so that production is being stimulated.

Railroads are in good condition, he thinks, and contracts for new equipment next year will be old business.

Manufacturing, the President is informed, is producing at far better than the average rate.

But the President recalls that dire predictions of business depression made by some at the beginning of 1926 were never realized and points to this as proof that predictions do not always materialize.

The present year has had a fairly generous measure of prosperity for many lines of business.

Man without a soul would be worth about 98 cents on the open market. That is what the chemicals that go to make up a man would cost.

OUTLOOK FOR 1927. Unhappy conditions in agriculture and uncertainty in that field are causing forecasters to include a note of caution as they point out the probable trend of business during 1927.

Dr. Frank Crane Says

AMERICA MAKES HER OWN PROSPERITY

It should be remembered that the cause of prosperity in a country is not only its ability to produce, but its ability to consume.

America is prosperous not only because its labor is efficient, it has great skill, and produces a large quantity of goods, but also because it contains a very large proportion of people who want a great many things.

The superiority of America over Europe is not only caused by the fecundity of the American workman, but also by the supremacy of American wants.

Recent figures show that real wages in the United States, that is, wages in terms of food, clothes and rent says George W. Himmelman, are double the real wages in Great Britain and three or four times the real wages on the continent of Europe.

The advertisements in the newspapers are constantly creating new desires among our people. They are stimulating the want for more and better things and thus creating an enormous market for our products.

Whatever induces a people to want more and better goods is valuable, as well as whatever stimulates them to produce more and better goods.

It must always be remembered that prosperity is two-edged. It must include a sharp demand as well as a sharp supply. Because the people of this country live so well and ask so many luxuries, there is a constant demand for the goods we produce.

We sell much goods abroad and the profits from our external trade are considerable. But these profits are small compared with the advantage of our internal consumption.

10 YEARS IN THE SAME LOCATION

Miss Ella Weakley, who was called here by the death of her brother, Joe returned to New Jersey last Friday.

Mrs. Mary Cherry, Xenia, sister of Mr. R. C. Watt of this place, is reported in a very critical condition and little hope is held for her recovery.

Miss Eleanor Kyle, has returned to her school work at St. Marys, after a visit with her parents, Rev. R. J. and Mrs. Kyle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rife entertaining a large company of friends and relatives at dinner New Year's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owens of Detroit visited here over the week-end with the former's father, who underwent a paralytic stroke last week. Mr. Owens is reported much better.

Mrs. Minnie Douglass, who has been visiting the Misses Mary and Jennie Britton, in Chicago, was taken ill while in that city. She is expected back the last of this week.

Miss Elsie Shrodes has returned to her school in Mt. Washington, Cincinnati, after spending the holidays with her aunt, Mrs. Cora Trumbo.

An Appreciation: We wish to express our hearty appreciation of the patronage of the past year and extend our thanks to all who have contributed to our successful record in 1926. Frank B. Thomas, Grocer.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McMillan and son, John, and Mrs. J. H. McMillan visited in Cleveland for several days with Mrs. Melyin McMillan's parents. They were accompanied home by Miss Margaret Chaudler, who is attending Cedarville College.

The Broadcasters of the Presbyterian Sabbath School will enjoy a supper this Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Conley. The class will gather after the evening service at the church.

Friends here will regret to hear that Miss Jessie Small fell several days ago while visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huff in London. Miss Small has been laid up as a result suffering with an badly injured shoulder.

Miss Lillian Kunkle had as her guest last week, Mr. Eugene C. Kreider of Philadelphia. Mr. Kreider left for home Monday night, where he will complete his theological course this semester at Mt. Airy seminary.

Miss Mary Williamson, and Miss Margaret Lackey, the latter from near Jamestown, entertained last Wednesday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Julia Harrison, now Mrs. David McElroy, whose marriage took place last Saturday. Fifty guests were received at the Williamson home and the bride was presented with many useful gifts. The hostesses were assisted by Misses Florence Williamson, Myrtle Lackey, Agnes Stormont and Mrs. Raymond Williamson.

Mrs. Luther Gray (nee Nina Shrodes) delightfully entertained the members of the graduating classes of 1917 and '18 of Cedarville High School at her home in Springfield, on New Year's eve. The guests had an enjoyable time with various contests and an exchange of gifts which were arrayed under a beautiful Christmas tree. During the evening delicious refreshments were served. The party was an annual event for the two classes, and was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Sunday School Lesson

Lesson for January 9

THE STANDARD OF CHRISTIAN LIVING

LESSON TEXT—Luke 6:27-35. GUILTY TONGUES—Do ye therefore swear, even as your fathers which is in heaven is perfect. FURNACE TOPOIC—How Jesus Wants Us to Live. JUDICIAL TOPOIC—Marching Orders for Christians. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPOIC—What Christ Demands of Us. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPOIC—Christ's Life and Example for Us.

The context (v. 23) clearly implies that the disciples positively declared (John 15:18-21; Luke 21:17) that the followers of Christ will be hated and opposed. In this lesson Christ sets forth the principles governing the life of his followers.

I. "Love Your Enemies" (v. 27). Love here is not a natural affection. To love friends is easy, but to love enemies is only possible to those who have been made partakers of the divine nature—been born again.

II. "Do Good to Them Which Hate You" (v. 27). Love is positive in its nature. The true Christian will not merely refrain from doing injury to one who hates him, but will be concerned with and engaged in doing good to him. True love acts according to its own essential nature.

III. "Bless Them That Curse You" (v. 28). To bless means to speak well of—to invoke a blessing upon. Injury by words is hard to let go unchallenged. The one who is a child of God and allows the Spirit of his Maker and Redeemer to express itself through him will return blessings for curses.

IV. "Pray for Them Which Despitefully Use You" (v. 28). We should pray for those who abuse us. The best commentary on this precept is Christ's own example (Luke 23:34). "Father forgive them for they know not what they do." When Christ was reviled He reviled not again. When He suffered, He threatened not, but committed Himself to Him that judgeth righteously. (1 Pet. 2:23).

V. "Patiently Endure Wrong and Injury" (v. 29). The Christian is not to bristle in defense of his rights but rather to suffer insult, injury and even loss. This expresses the law which should govern the individual's actions, but should not be pressed so far that evil-doers can go unchecked. Rightly constituted government has been ordained of God for the protection of the innocent and the punishment of evil-doers (Rom. 13:1-5).

VI. Give to Every One That Asks of Thee (v. 30). God is the supreme example. He gives freely and generously but intelligently. This text does not authorize indiscriminate giving. There is a giving which injures the one to whom the gift is made. To give a man money to buy whisky would be wrong.

VII. Do as You Wish to Be Done By (v. 31). This is called the Golden Rule. It is the sum total of Christian duty as it pertains to human interrelations. Human beings carry with them the consciousness which is the touchstone which teaches them their duty to others. If men were to live up to this rule the problem of capital and labor would be solved and end would be put to war. International relations would be peaceably adjusted and all profiting in business would end. Practicing this precept proves that we are children of God. Loving those who love us, doing good to those who do good to us, lending to those who lend to us, is the common practice even among sinners. No new birth, no Holy Spirit needed to live this kind of life.

VIII. Be Merciful (v. 33). This means to be filled with pity and compassion. To enter into sympathy with every need of others. The supreme example as to this is the Heavenly Father.

IX. Conspicuous Judgments Condemned (v. 27). This means that we should not seek out the evil or faults in others for our satisfaction. We should not sit in conspicuous judgment upon the actions of others. However, it does not prohibit the just estimation of the character of others by their deeds.

X. The Components of Right Living (v. 33). The one who gives freely of money, loves sincerely, makes the Golden Rule the standard of his life, shows mercy and kindness to others, and refrains from imputing the motives of others will be fully rewarded in kind. God will see to it that there be no loss.

Keeping the Mouth Closed
If a man can keep his mouth closed it is a sure sign that he could say something if he opened it.—King's Business.

Keep an Eye on the One
Keep your eye on the One you are up.—Echase.

Gem of Colombia
Colombia yields more than 99 per cent of the world's production of emeralds. One of the largest of the mines is at Muzo, which is operated by the government, and a Paris concern has the contract for marketing the output.

Worn Linoleum Renewed
To renovate badly worn cork linoleum, scrub it with warm water and a mild caustic powder and, before the surface dries, rub thoroughly with medium steel wool. Then apply two coats of clear varnish or wax.—Popular Science Monthly.
