New Partnership Program Supports Christian Business Owners

CEDARVILLE, OHIO -- A new preferred partnership program at Cedarville University will support Christian business owners in Ohio. The Christian Business Partnership, headquartered in Columbus, Ohio, is joining Cedarville's preferred partnership program to give employees a 15% tuition discount for select graduate programs.

Christian Business Partnership members may receive discounts on Cedarville's online graduate degrees including the Master of Business Administration (MBA), Master of Arts in Innovation (MA), Master of Arts in Biblical Leadership (MABL), Master of Ministry, Master of Arts in Worship and Theology, the Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) and Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP). The discount also applies to the residential Master of Divinity (MDiv) program.

"We are excited to partner with Christian Business Partnership because of our shared commitment to empowering Christians to excel in both their professions and their faith," said Brian Shook, assistant vice president for graduate enrollment.

The mission of Christian Business Partnership is to advocate for the religious liberty of Christian employers and for a fair and free marketplace that enables entrepreneurs to thrive and compete.

"The Christian Business Partnership is passionate about seeing our members thrive economically in a free and fair marketplace, while also encouraging them in their personal and spiritual growth," said Matt Stivers, executive director of Christian Business Partnership. "Through Cedarville University's graduate program discount, we are able to give our members this unique benefit to empower and equip them in their marketplace assignments as Christians."

The Partnership advocates, educates and celebrates Christian business owners by providing a network of legal support. Cedarville's graduate school currently partners with 39 businesses and organizations throughout the United States, including the Family Research Council, Answers in Genesis, Samaritan's Purse and others.

The Graduate School at Cedarville equips students for career success and ministry impact by offering degrees taught through a biblical lens. These preferred partnerships make it even easier to apply by offering tuition discounts.

Ministries or organizations that are interested in pursuing a partnership agreement with Cedarville's graduate school should email gradamissions@cedarville.edu or visit cedarville.edu/partners.

About Christian Business Partnership

Christian Business Partnership is Ohio's statewide Christian Chamber of Commerce. The Christian Business Partnership stands for Christians in the marketplace. By uniting Bible-believing business leaders across Ohio like never before, ensuring the Buckeye state remains a state where people of all faiths are free to grow their companies and raise their families.

Located in southwest Ohio, Cedarville University is an accredited, Christ-centered, Baptist institution with an enrollment of 5,082 undergraduate, graduate, and dual-enrolled high school students in more than 175 areas of study. Founded in 1887, Cedarville is one of the largest private universities in Ohio, recognized nationally for its authentic Christian community, rigorous academic programs, high graduation and retention rates, accredited professional and health science offerings, and the #4 national ranking by the Wall Street Journal for student engagement.
