Americans For America — America For Americans

SIXTY-SIXTH YEAR No. 46

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1943

PRICE, $1.50 A YEAR

CONGRESSIONAL HAPPENINGS IN WASHINGTON

By CLARENCE J. BROWN
Member of Congress,
Seventh Ohio District

The Administration's new tax proposals, as presented to the Ways and Means Committee of the House by Secretary Morgenthau last week, has brought on a Congressional revolt unequalled in American legislative history. Secretary Morgenthau, as spokesman for the Roosevelt Administration, recommended that Federal taxes be increased by ten and one-half billion dollars, the greater part of which is planned to come from individual income taxes, with smaller amounts from corporation taxes and excise levies. The new individual income tax schedules, as recommended by Secretary Morgenthau, would reduce exemptions for married couples and dependent children and would increase surtaxes, as well as withholding taxes, so that the average individual would be paying approximately fifty percent more income tax in 1944 than during 1943. Proposed levies on individuals in the higher income brackets when added to the carry-over taxes from last year which will be payable in 1944 and 1945, and to State income tax levies, would actually amount to more than such taxpayers' total incomes. The Secretary of the Treasury also recommended boosting normal corporation tax rates from forty to fifty percent, with a ninety percent levy on all excess profits. Excess taxes on many articles would be fixed as high as twenty-five percent. However, there is little likelihood that the Administration tax proposals will be enacted into law. In fact the whole Administration tax program seems dead right now; for both Democratic and Republican Members of Congress, including Chairman Doughton of the Ways and Means Committee, are openly voicing their opposition to the Treasury's proposals. They insist an increase of four or five billion dollars a year in tax revenue is all that can be expected.

Republican Members of Congress are demanding that Government spending be reduced by at least five billion dollars a year before any new taxes are imposed upon the American people. Representative Taber, ranking Republican Member of the House Appropriations Committee, insists there is easily five billion dollars' worth of waste and extravagance that can be squeezed out of non-military appropriations without in any way injuring public service; while other Members of Congress are confident that even military expenditures can be reduced materially without interfering with the winning of the war. So the "Economy bloc" in Congress may force a reduction in public expenditures before any consideration is given to increasing the national tax burden; also Economic Stabilizer Vinson and Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau insist increased taxes are necessary to prevent inflation. To some it appears that unbridled Governmental spending, waste and extravagance might also be inflationary.

As the result of last week's development on the tax front, there has been a renewed discussion of the desirability of raising needed increased revenues through a national sales tax rather than through increased income taxes. Members of the Ways and Means Committee urging consideration of the sales tax plan estimated that a ten percent sales tax on all commodities would bring in approximately six billion dollars a year in increased revenues, while at the same time helping to reduce the inflationary trend.

Speaking of inflation: While one Administration spokesman demands heavily increased taxes as necessary to drain off the extra cash and surplus purchasing power of the people, the President is insisting on the payment of subsidies and the rollback of prices on food products, so the people will have to pay less for their food and consequently will have more surplus income. Price rollbacks and subsidy payments contemplated would reduce per capita food costs by approximately $10.00 per year, all of which, including the cost of administering the program, must be paid through taxes sooner or later. At the same time the same Administration is also asking that income and other Federal taxes for the average individual be increased by at least $50.00 a year. In other words, they propose to temporarily save the average man

Richard Bryan Forfeits $50 Bond In Local Court

Richard Bryan, 22, South Charleston accompanied by a minor, was out on a joy ride Saturday night using a truck tractor. He was accompanied by another boy, a minor. While coming toward Xenia at a fast rate of speed, day night at a fast rate of speed, the driver could not check the tractor in time. Being behind a truck awaiting a change in the traffic light at Xenia and Main, he skidded the tractor, hitting a car owned by Clyde Johnson of Courtsville.

Screaming breaks and the impact attracted numerous bystanders in the Saturday night crowd. The tractor following the accident, headed back towards Xenia at a fast rate of speed. He was followed by Chief Marshall in a car driven by Alfred Brightman. Driving at a fast rate of speed the officer could not overtake the boys and lost track of them.

The boys headed for Washington C. H. according to reports and covered many miles. Numerous truckmen reported the wild ride to State Police. Neighboring towns were notified to be on the watch. Sheriff Walton Spahr had his deputies driving side roads in the county.

The boys returned to South Charleston about 3 A. M., Sunday morning and were greeted by local officers. Richard was brought back to Cedarville to face a charge of wreckless driving and posted $50 bail which was forfeited. Other charges will be filed in South Charleston.

The tractor was owned by Mr. Butts a livestock dealer in Charleston.

Demo. Politician Lost Gas Rights For Ninety Days

County Commissioner Elmer F. Timmerman, Dem., Dayton, lost his gasoline ration cards on two charges for sixty and ninety days each. He was charged with using gasoline on a trip to Omaha, Neb., and to Oklahoma and another to Miami, Fla. The only comment the Democrat politician made following the verdict was "If I never see my son again, it was worth it." He visited his son in Camp in Florida. In Dayton public sentiment is divided on the case. Numerous Democrats support Timmerman and condemn the OPA rulings. Others glee in the penalty on the ground the Democratic politician thought he could get away with it. Only a Roosevelt enjoyer that right under New Deal Democracy.

Farm Organizations Fight All Subsidy

Leaders in the three major Farm Organizations, Farm Bureau, Grange and Farmers' Union, all have broken with Roosevelt over the farm subsidy payments to reduce the cost of living for some at the expense of others. Grange Master Goss has written a stinging letter to the White House stating the position of the farm groups.

In Ohio the Farm Bureau has gone on record as opposing any form of subsidy. The organization opposes a federal sales tax.

Gregor Ziemor, author, educator, and journalist, will be guest speaker at the 25th annual convention of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation to be held in Columbus, Nov. 17-19.

Following the lunch period Howard Davidson will speak on conserving Feed Supplies in Hog Production. Modern methods in Swine Production and Soybean Oil for Pigs in Dry Lot will be discussed by J. S. Coffey and W. L. Robinson will speak on Factors Affecting the Feeding Value of Corn.

Clark County Hog Ceilings Under Dayton Market

Farmers and hog feeders in Clark county are protesting the OPA ceiling price on hogs for Springfield market, $14.60 against a ceiling of $14.80 for both Dayton and Columbus.

Clark county farmers are faced with the problem of taking the lower ceiling price or trucking their hogs to Dayton for the higher price.

The pressure on hog prices since the ceiling has been set at $14.60 is such that it is now for several weeks. Cattle are down and feeders are more or less depressed.

The whole New Deal farm program is to urge larger crops and more livestock and poultry and then force a fixed low price for market control. The farmer under the present plan has no opportunity of sharing in the war profits enjoyed by labor and industry. Industry with war contracts has a guaranteed profit regardless of costs.

Most all markets have had light runs of hogs since the ceiling which fixes the price in a range of weights that can only give the farmer a profit by feeding for heavy weight. The government now urges light hogs "to save feed" but light hogs under present conditions would bankrupt feeders.

WHEAT FOLLOWING BOYS NEED FERTILIZER

An average yield of soybeans removes 155 pounds of nitrogen, 45 pounds of phosphoric acid, 70 pounds of potash and 128 pounds of lime from each acre of soil. An average yield of wheat removes 61 pounds of nitrogen, 20 pounds of phosphoric acid, 27 pounds of potash and 17 pounds of lime per acre. Wheat following soybeans should receive a heavy application of fertilizer.

LATE CUTTING WEAKENS ALFALFA

Alfalfa fields should not be cut for hay or pasture this month unless the meadow is to be plowed. The period from September 15 to about November 1 is needed by the crop to manufacture food for storage in the roots before winter.

SOYBEANS BIG INCOME PRODUCERS SHEET

Soybeans have become one of the county's major cash crops. Last year 9300 acres of beans were grown in the county which produced 169,700 bushels. While this year average figures are not available they are expected to exceed those of last year.

Final reports of sources of 1942 farm income in Ohio show that for the first time farmers obtained more from the sales of soybeans than they received for their wheat crop. Soy bean acreage has increased almost ten times during the past 10 years while wheat acreage has not changed greatly since 1932. Soybeans have replaced oats and other spring grown grains and this change marks a big change on the management of Ohio farms.

HELP FARMERS FILE INCOME TAX RETURNS

Preparations to help farmers file their December income tax reports are being made by farm management specialists at Ohio State University who will hold schools in conjunction with members of the Internal Revenue Bureau, to train people to assist farmers in filling out the required statements. Schools are now being scheduled and persons interested in this type of training should contact the county agricultural agent.

SASSAFRAS POSTS WILL NOT LAST

The shortage of fencing materials, especially posts resulting in the trucking in from southern Ohio of large numbers of sassafras posts. In this majority of cases they are sold as Swamp Locust and according to forestry experts the wood is light, soft, weak, brittle, and will last only a few

CAPTAIN RANK BESTOWED ON H. PICKERING

CAPTAIN HARRY B. PICKERING

Word was received here the first of the week that First Lt. Harry B. Pickering, former superintendent of the Greene County Schools, on leave, has been promoted to the rank of Captain at the Middletown Air Service Command, Middletown, Pa.

Capt. Pickering has been in the service since May, 1942, receiving his training at Miami Beach, Fla. He is a graduate of Cedarville College, and his mother, Mrs. Laura Pickering, resides in Jamestown.

Only Inflation On Farm Income

The federal treasury department in Washington gives a list of sixty-one officers of industrial companies that drew salary last year of $75,000 or more. Most all of the executives are with companies with fat cost-plus war contracts. R. K. LeBlond, Cincinnati headed the Ohio list with a salary of $323,925. Charles R. Hook, Middletown, $166,714; Calvin Verity, same city and company, $122,258; W. W. Sebald, $88,927. E. A. Deeds, $100,000 and S. C. Allyn, Dayton, same company, $100,000 and $96,354 respectively. The New Deal claims of inflation from farm war profits but economic security from war time salaries. The basis of the inflation claim for farmers is that they do not know how to spend money. For that reason the New Deal wants the AAA as a "daddy" to the American farmers. Stalin has one for the poor Russian peasants.

Most Everything To Be Rationed

Save your gasoline for it will not be long until you will have to make a trip to town to register for Ration Book No. 4. The registration will be held during the week of October 25 to the 30th. A report out of Washington a few days ago quoted a high official as saying most everything needed by individuals, in the home, and on the farm will be rationed before next spring.

"OLD CEDARVILLE" F. M. FOSTER

At the time set people would gather. The house would be filled with women and the men would fill the yard. Talking if any would be in subdued tone, for all realized they were in the presence of death. The minister preached a solemn discourse; saying little about the dead; but called on all to realize that death was at the end of the path for each one and earnestly exhorted all to prepare to meet the Lord. He would give out a Psalm, all in the Presbyterian time sang the Psalms in worship, and in solemn voices everybody sang. After prayer and the Benediction, the time came to "lift". The body of the dead was on the bed. The coffin was brought in. It was usually lined with muslin.

If the body was a man three if necessary four, men would slowly approach the bed and lift the body, already shrouded, and gently lay it in the coffin. If a woman, women would perform this service. The lid would be put on and men would carry it to the hearse.

Once started, vehicles would fall in behind. The line would sometimes be very long, and the horses walked. Passing through the town, a church bell would toll with measured solemnity. Thus the procession would wind its way, in early days, to the Churchyard. Touchingly beautiful is the sentiment going on Sabbath to the House of God to worship; and in death buried beside it.

After the House of God, the next matter was schools. In the very early days the government did not establish these; but they were called "Select" schools. The district would be canvassed for children, each at so much and the teacher to "board" around" on part pay. While the school would run six or eight months the Big boys got little more than the Winter Term. To them it was a time of relaxation and fun more than study.

This view had not altogether subsided in the writer's early memory. Book learning was not so highly appreciated in those days. A young man, with some training, applied for a school inside of four miles of Cedarville. He got along fine with the children who could attend the Fall term. In the winter term big boys, young men, came. The teacher had nothing of the bull-dog makeup. He was continually caught off guard. Things were continually happening. Teachers usually had two or three rods standing by his desk. But he did not dare attempt to use one.

Well, the big boys had fun, to their own loss if they could only have understood, until the teacher resigned and went home. I saw two fights with one teacher in the Old Grove School. Once the struggle was intense; and finally the teacher pinned the boys' shoulders to the floor. In this case, also another teacher, a big boy fought. In this case, the boy soon gave up. I can name the boys, the teachers and the Country School. master above referred to, though these things took place about 75 years ago.

How the matter started I do not know, for the boys were fine boys on the playground. Some boys would think it smart to swear. But I never heard either of them swear. I imagine to the view the teacher was not master of himself which you must be if you are teaching school. A quick temper just will not do in any place, or in any thing. If the one who is interested in these lines can find a copy of "The Hoosier Schoolmaster" by Edward Eggleston, in the late 60's or early 70's, he will see that the road to learning was not easy for the Master. The book is very readable.

Another thing which the recent comers have missed is Young fellows going home, probably a little late, singing as they rode their horses. Some were fine singers and their mellow voices would, on a still night, carry far.

Probably the little thought that any one would be listening. A man who lived perhaps two or more miles out the road which passes the North Cemetery, rode a big fine horse into town every day or two. He always carried a cattle whip, now not often seen. His face bore some tell-tale marks not so good. He had something in his mouth by which he could make music. As he came into town and as he went out he would play and now and then swing his cattle whip with a crack like a pistol. Feeling extra good going home, the whip notified all and sundry that he was on his way. He was a character of those early days, and it was hard for him to give up the whip with its eighteen inch handle and lash possibly 16 feet long. But they also are gone nevermore to return unless the whole

New Jersey Goat Dealer Wants Barn

Some time ago Mrs. Dorothy Wright received a complimentary write-up in a national magazine of a lumber company.

In recent days Mrs. Wright has been receiving requests for various kinds of portable buildings. A New Jersey goat dealer wants a portable barn that will house 4 tons of loose hay. It could not be sent by mail probably due to the weight required for that much loose hay.

Another Easterner wants a portable postoffice. He should write Washington. Each mail brings requests for some sort of portable building. The lumber company has made numerous portable buildings for farm use but no barns or postoffice buildings.

SGT. KENNETH FERRYMAN HOME ON FURLOUGH

Sgt. Kenneth Ferryman, who is assigned to the Navy medical corps, and has made numerous trips across the Pacific, on boats carrying American boys and supplies, is home on a furlough and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ferryman and other relatives.

The Greene County Red Cross is planning an extensive First Aid training program throughout the county this fall and winter. The course is offered to all interested to relieve doctors and nurses being called into the armed forces. Mrs. Haro M. Reinhard will act as organizer and instructor in this locality.

WM. HAWKINS BARN BURNED WEDNESDAY

The William Hawkins barn on the Federal pike southwest of town burned about 5 p. m., Wednesday evening. The building and contents consisting of hay and some farm implements and a quantity of potatoes were consumed.

The fire is said to have originated from a defective electric lamp socket when the young son turned on the light. The lad immediately notified his mother but there was nothing they could do when there was no one else at home. The fire attracted neighbors who aided in saving property near the scene of the fire.

No report is given as to the amount of the loss or to the extent of insurance.

The Hawkins farm was formerly the Harve Stormont farm as known to older citizens.

Fire Department Called For Grass Fire

The fire department was called out Wednesday afternoon when grass was fired by a passing locomotive along the railroad. The fire spread rapidly around the water-filled quarry to Xenia ave. The fire was extinguished by use of water before any damage was done. This should be a warning against fire anywhere during the time when everything is dry. We have had no rain in this section of any consequence for several weeks. Newly sown wheat has not even sprouted.

Bond Buyers Are To Get Bonds Following Inspection

For months we have been hearing complaints from local persons who are employed at Patterson Field that they have had trouble getting their bonds paid for with money deducted from the salary pay checks. All sort of excuses have been offered. Many have not received their bonds paid for in 1942.

Congressman Harry P. Jeffrey, R., Dayton, has conducted an investigation and exposed the inefficiency of the method used by the war department. It is charged in many cases the buyers were not even given a receipt to purchasers. The situation is described as a "mess".

Headquarters at Patterson Field placed the blame on Washington but since the exposure, bonds will now be delivered from the Field.

The principle reason given for the tangle is that the offices at the Field and in Washington are overstaffed with inexperienced salary eaters, many draft evaders and being-of-draft age.

CHURCHILL NOMINATES ROOSEVELT— THEN ELECTS

It will hardly be necessary for the Democrats to hold a National Convention next year to nominate Franklin D. Roosevelt for a fourth term.

Sunday night the radio listeners were greeted with the startling news broadcast from England.

Having a free hand into the American citizen's pocket-book by the New Deal income tax route, Churchill must be somewhat alarmed that you as an American citizen will do...

As far as England is concerned Roosevelt has been nominated and elected. We do not read in Democratic or New Deal papers any endorsement of the Churchill pronouncement...

YOU MUST BE TAXED FOR THE WORLD BANK

The New Deal dreamers are now cooking up a plan to have a world bank to feed foreign nations our money much like the Wallace plan of a "free bottle of milk" to the entire universe daily...

The proposed New Deal world bank has the backing of England, which only wants ten billion dollars of our money to rebuild bombed London and make it the most perfect city architecturally in the world.

We are told that it is our duty to tax ourselves more and more each year to prove our good-fellowship so that the other bombed cities of Europe can be rebuilt.

We notice Senator Robert Taft, R. O., comes out against the world bank proposal. This should be the signal for the Democratic senators to stand in line and be counted for or against the new bank scheme...

After all what is "ten or a hundred billion dollars" to the fellows that never earned a cent by manual labor and will pay little or no taxes in comparison with those who are paying the heavy New Deal income taxes...

FIVE SENATORS BRANDED LIKE PEARSON

Five Senators, representing both dominant political parties, made a recent world trip to visit the various war fronts. They gave a secret report to fellow senators last week behind closed doors.

There was some feeling over what the senators found that has caused much comment privately and through the press. The picture of how "lend-lease" was being handled left a smear all the way to the White House door...

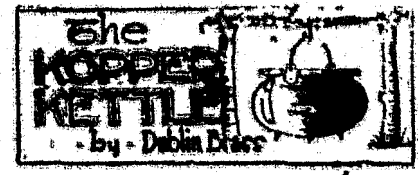

For months there has been a somewhat distant feeling with Russia against the United States that she was not doing her share to aid in defeating the Germans.

The manner in which war news had been kept from the American people was another tender spot. The senators talked with boys at the front. They know how the boys feel about their own future and they know how the boys feel about the New Deal.

Tuesday the press conference was the time for FDR to put the five senators in the Drew Pearson class, FDR some time ago publically branded Pearson a "chronic liar".

There is no more reason why all the report made to the Senate could not be made public than it was necessary to hold up weather reports of purely local interest.

IF YOU NEED PRINTING, DROP IN HERALD WANT AND SALE ADS PAY

Talk of Democratic and New Deal slackers hiding behind government jobs is no worse than the selective service sham where baseball players are exempted due to disability yet are able to play ball every day.

The government takes over control of most milk areas and as usual a shortage of milk develops. Government dictation on control and price makes a slave out of the milk producer.

Beefsteak batters Stafford county farmers in New Hampshire. Red stamps mean nothing. To have a supply of beef for home consumption and a few neighbors thirty farmers have joined together and purchased 95 head of cattle from Oklahoma that averaged 500 pounds.

Here is a true New Deal story, one of the best of the Roosevelt economic loas that shows how the FDR politicians are throwing away money and property, both owned by the tax-paying citizens of the nation.

We have watched anxiously the columns of the Dayton Daily News to read some comment on the charge against E. F. Timmerman, county commissioner, who used his gasoline for a trip to Omaha Neb., and then on to Oklahoma City, and a second trip to Miami, Fla.

For weeks and more the Timmerman case has been discussed both publicly and privately. Letters to Dayton papers kept the issue alive but editorial column of the Dayton Daily News, official apologist for the New Deal short-comings, and Communist intentions, had not a word to say concerning one of the fellow travelers to the land of happiness and pleasure.

ing won all the enemies one white man is entitled too, Byron Harlan, rent director for this territory, has resigned. The resignation of a Democrat from the federal payroll is more news than the story of the "man biting the dog".

Cigar smokers are singing the blues for it is seldom a smoker can find his favorite brand, or even any other substitute brand.

One thing is certain these retailers are not to blame. The manufacturers are not to blame for they cannot make cigars out of anything but tobacco.

RESEARCH CLUB WILL NOT HOLD OCTOBER MEETING

There will be no meeting of the Research Club for October, according to a statement issued by Mrs. Meryl Stormont.

Air Hammer Used To Dig Graves

Few realize just how hard and dry the earth is regardless of the continued rains last spring that soaked the ground to the average depth.

Probably the first grave ever to be dug by aid of the air hammer in the county was last week when W. C. Kliff, contractor and president of Massies Creek Cemetery Association, used his "air hammer" to loosen the dirt for a grave.

COLLEGE NEWS

Prof. Hosteller's subject at Chapel Tuesday was "Poetry or Potatoes?" Folks are so busy chasing the almighty dollar that the almighty ideal, even Almighty God, are forgotten. Jesus said, "Man cannot live by bread alone."

President-elect Vayhinger has been quite busy with the organization of the National War Fund Drive in Greene County. Judging by the enthusiasm of the leaders at the get-started dinner at Xenia, Monday night and the response to date Greene County will go over the top as its goal.

Dean Rabb, former college student, visited at college, renewing old times. Dean is in the army. He has been located in the south, but was New Jersey bound for more training.

"College Students" were guests of the United Presbyterian young people's group Thursday evening. Entertainment and eats were in keeping with the approaching Halloween season. Superfluous to remark that a good time was had by all.

Discovery Day is also natal day for Miss Bernice Dees. A party was held at the Dorm Thursday night to celebrate her passing from empytan to sixteen years of age. Eats, gifts, and fun were the order of the evening. All join in wishing her many, many happy returns of the day.

W. A. C. Campaign Being Directed By Mrs. W. W. Galloway

"To maintain our offensive in this war, we must send thousands of replacements to the battlefronts and keep supply lines moving. Women can take over many vital army jobs and that is what the W.A.C.'s are doing."

"We are simply asking the women of this country to come forward and help out in an emergency as they have done many times before. They have never failed in the past and we are sure they will not fail now."

Women who enlist during the progress of the current campaign will be grouped together in individual W.A.C. companies or units. Each state contingent will wear a distinctive shoulder patch insignia giving the State name. Members of State companies will go through basic training together and the State company will carry its own State flag at all formal parades.

We are accepting enlistments for Ohio's first company now and want every county in the State represented. Application blanks and full information about enlistment in the Corps may be obtained from Mrs. W. W. Galloway, Phone 6-1181.

The date of the first Ohio shipment of W.A.C.'s has been set for October 14th. Their destination will be Ft. Oglethorpe, Georgia. I feel sure that Cedarville will want to be represented on the first Ohio Unit.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE W.A.C.
1. Age and citizenship. An applicant must be a citizen of the United States and must have attained her twentieth but not her fiftieth birthday. She must present proof of birth date and citizenship.

2. Physical and mental. An applicant must be of excellent character and capable of passing the prescribed mental alertness test and physical examination. She must present three letters of recommendation.

3. Dependents. (1) Any person with a child or children under the age of 14 years, legally or in fact dependent upon such person for care, custody, control, or support, is not eligible for enlistment. (2) Any person who is responsible for the financial support of any person, unless such support can be met entirely by other means other than derived from the applicant's pay as a member of the W.A.C. is not eligible for enlistment.

4. A woman engaged in agricultural occupation will not be accepted for enlistment in the W.A.C.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Mr. Kath Bull, editor, Cedarville Herald, Cedarville, Ohio,

Dear Kath:

Would like to thank Rev. F. M. Foster for the favorable comment regarding my Boyland Trail yarn. However, I feel presumptuous as a writer on early Cedarville in the presence of such an authority as he affords. I trust I have his indulgence if for nothing else, in the profound impressions left to me by these earlier associations. Moreover, I am indebted to many collaborators of more reasoning than myself, for a lot of the data going into the tales. One particularly, is Rev. Parks Jackson, and of course, my father who too was born and spent his entire life in Cedarville.

Since Rev. Foster has made inquiry regarding my vocation and background I can make known that I started out as a newspaper man with the Dayton Journal as feature writer in 1919 after returning from overseas service at the American Legation military attaché, The Hague Netherlands. Entered aviation work about 1920 and published the pioneering aviation trade journal Slipstream till 1925 at which time it was sold to Simmons Boardman Publishing Co., New York City. Worked with this company as editor and advisor, and then started a Manufacturers Representative service in Dayton, specializing in aeronautical products.

Rev. Foster will perhaps appreciate the tale imparted to me by Rev. Jackson who befriended and encouraged me as a boy. The story surrounded Cedarville's most prominent son, Whitelaw Reid. I doubt if the story has ever been recorded so here it is:

Before Whitelaw had reached more than local prominence, and lived on his father's farm, he held an ambition to excel as a public speaker but like Demosthenes he encountered serious difficulties. Whereas the ancient Athenian suffered an impediment of speech, and managed to overcome it by rehearsing his orations with his mouth full of pebbles gathered by the seashore, Whitelaw couldn't overcome the habit of speaking in monotones. In all his attempts at public speaking he was continually interrupted by his audience shouting "Loud! Loud!"

The youthful Whitelaw hid himself across his father's fields to the Indian mound, climb to its top and shout his speeches over the countryside. Whitelaw always told me, related Rev. Jackson that "if I couldn't raise an echo off the side of Dad's barn I knew I wasn't whooping 'er up enough and I'd put on more steam."

But one day the young orator became overly diligent in his efforts to the extent that John George, a neighbor farmer tilling his fields a half mile away became exasperated at the booming harrange erupting from the peak of the ancient earthwork. "Stop that Dad-blamed, blasted, * * * howlin', Yore a-scarin' the hosses!"

After that, related the venerable parson, Whitelaw never used the Indian Mound as a forum as it is assumed he figured he had finally overcome his trouble.

This story, of course, is "gospel truth".

Yours very truly,
Fred F. Marshall

PROGRESSIVE CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS FOR YEAR

There was a general discussion of different projects the club is undertaking, each of which has a direct bearing on what is best for the village, local merchants and entertainment for our youth, having in mind juvenile delinquency.

Messrs. Claude Finney and Harold Reardean, both members, were honored with a token each. Both have enlisted in the "C.B.'s" and leave Monday.

ly of five $50 a year in the purchase of food-all of which must be paid for later on through taxes-and then turn around and increase the amount of taxes to be paid by such family $250 per year. Brilliant financing, isn't it? And of course smart politics if the people can be made to forget about their increased tax burdens and think only of their slightly reduced grocery bills.

The Wheeler Bill to prevent the drafting of fathers was defeated in the Senate late last week. Yet, at the same time, Senator Wheeler, really won a victory, for he has forced the adoption of the Bailey-Clark substitute, which will bring about the induction into military service of many thousands of unmarried men and childless husbands now employed in civilian positions within the Government, now enjoying questionable deferments in private industry. The bill as passed by the Senate, and which will undoubtedly get House approval will bring a complete recheck of all present deferments, and will, in effect, postpone the induction of many fathers for months to come. The Bill also carries an amendment to the Allotment Act increasing payments made to dependent children of men in the service. While the present allotment of $50 per month to a wife remains unchanged, the allotment granted to the first child has been increased to $30 a month, and for each additional child to $20. This means that a service man's wife with two children would be given an allotment of $100 per month instead of $72 per month as at present. Inasmuch as the Military Affairs Committee of the House had already recommended similar increases in allotments to service men's dependents, it seems certain the new schedule will soon go into effect.

WHEREAS, the Village of Cedarville, Greene County, Ohio has constructed a sewer system which now serves certain properties in said Village, but due to the structure of the land upon which the sewerage is emptied there is no proper disposal thereof, with the result that a serious unsanitary condition has arisen, and

WHEREAS, the public peace, health and safety of the Village require the immediate construction of a sewerage disposal plant upon property to be acquired outside of the territorial limits of the Village in order to relieve said unsanitary conditions,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY the Council of the Village of Cedarville, Greene County, Ohio, three-fourths of the members elected thereto concurring:

SECTION 1. That it is necessary to issue bonds of the Village of Cedarville, Greene County, Ohio, in the principal amount of $25,000.00, for the purpose of paying the cost of constructing a sewerage disposal plant for said Village.

America's "Best-run War" gives birth to a New Idea!

THIS has frequently been called "America's best-run war?" And it is.

After a shaky start and the first few stunning setbacks, the crescendo of production, the achievements of the military, and the steely determination of the people have been pretty close to miraculous.

In keeping with this "best-run" handling of all war problems, a new idea has been born, the new National War Fund. This new idea brings unity to the inescapable giving of funds, to the confusing multiplicity of necessary war agencies.

With the world in flames and in tears, the demands on generous American hearts have been infinite. When the fires of London are so thick the fire hoses run dry...when a Chinese mother has to watch her baby die for want of a simple drug...when Greeks by the hundreds drop dead in the street from starvation...when a home-town "war-orphaned" kid hardly through playing with dolls starts playing with fire...decent Americans cannot close their eyes or turn their backs.

These mass tragedies, these war-made horrors, stirred kind people to action. Committees were formed to provide aid for the suffering, and of course these committees needed money to carry on their good and vital work.

Now, in order to eliminate confusion, seventeen of these groups have been combined into the National War Fund. You give to this one Fund and you have given to all these seventeen agencies.

The National War Fund is officially endorsed by the President. It has the backing of the Government as an improvement over the old confusing way of raising money. It permits you to budget your wartime giving more easily. It makes sense.

This unified Fund does not intrude upon the autonomy of any of these agencies. The USO, China Relief, British War Relief and all the others will be left under their present efficient and experienced direction. They will be freed from the task of raising money, and have time to devote full time to their good works; and you will not have to dig down so often that your pocket becomes frayed at the edges.

The money you give will do good round the world. It will also do good right in your own neighborhood for we have combined the appeal of the National War Fund with that of our local agencies. Part of your contribution will be used for the families of men in the service, for the children of parents in war work, for the social services needed to keep a community at war healthy, safe and efficient.

Give, generously, today. Add up your total gifts...then double it!
