MOVING UNEMPLOYED OUT OF CITIES

Residents of rural centers should take more than passing interest in the Roosevelt plan to move hundreds of thousands of unemployed out of the cities and place them in Roosevelt centers in rural sections. It is a clever move to aid the cities and thus reduce the financial load due to relief demands.

But property owners in rural counties have another picture to present, once these families, many of whom never have resided in the country, know nothing of rural or farm labor, nor of rural customs, are fastened upon rural counties. It should also be kept in mind that President Roosevelt has set July 1st as the dead line when the Federal government will drop all relief work. He has made it plain that states counties and townships must get organized to carry on after that date.

With hundreds of city families unloaded on rural counties you can see what is in store after the Roosevelt order goes into effect on July 1st. You might also put your own appraisal on the fairness of the Roosevelt scheme to drag the unemployed out into the open spaces.

PARENTAGE OF THE NEW DEALERS

President Roosevelt by some mysterious application of contraption has brought into being a heterogeneous lot of Beelzebubs born out of political wedlock that he no longer recognizes his own offspring. Like the devil himself his own rise today to plague him. First and foremost is the Kingfish of the "share the wealth" contingent that is making such headway even Democratic leaders see trouble in the distant future.

Next comes the Sunday afternoon crusader that exposes the shame connected with his political parentage and he renounces to his millions of followers the sin of his ancestry. From the printed page of the nation's leading periodical we find "Crackdown" Johnson disowning his parentage and exposing his early teaching.

Another offspring that arises to plague his sire spreads the gospel of $200 a month pensions, much to the annoyance of the one who once pleaded the cause of the "Forgotten man".

By inheritance an Oklahoma senator realizing his political birth was by a form of inflation now sees no harm in going daddy one better and would cover the land with mama in the form of greenbacks. At the head of the Whitehouse table sits that noble Roman son, Bacchus, with his wine to make merry among the young of the household. By his very makeup little does he care for the origin of his parentage.

Out of a labor of thirty hours a week comes one "Shedevil" and her two sons, Green and Lewis. Troublesome old lady with two bad boys bent on wrecking everything they touch.

And over the Whitehouse portal is the nest of the Blue Eagle and the old bird is dead as "Dodo" but the Cuckoo says to the estranged family, "Coo-Coo!"

The above editorial appeared in this column on February 15, and is reprinted at the request of a reader as the answer today in the Roosevelt-Johnson-Long-Coughlin squabble.

The Roosevelt administration is only reaping what it has sown. It has at all times by crafty means endeavored to inflame one class against another. Worse still misrepresentation has played no small part, and the Whitehouse has had its part in the little game of innocent deception that people can still be kept in an unsettled state of mind; that promises of financial aid are dangled before a distressed people for no other purpose than to hold certain leadership. But what of the day when 120 million people awake from this trance-blinded no longer by the mysteries that are certain to prove a fake?

The Roosevelt program is a snare, a fake, a delusion that honest thinking men can no longer support. Two years of the cut and try method finds thousands more out of employment than even a year ago. Two years has found our national debt where it is to make the load of the poor more burdensome than ever. It is slowly dragging down the great middle class. But while we are "robbing Peter to pay Paul" through the NRA, big business profits continue to grow at the expense of small business. By careful administration imports are regulated to hold down the cost of living at the expense of the American farmer. The Roosevelt program has been the deceiver of labor. It has betrayed the sanctity of the American home and debased the morals of younger generations.

The courts are day by day declaring the fantastic mystical bubble of the NRA unconstitutional yet what do we find following the decision of the U. S. Supreme Court. Had the gold decision been unfavorable to the Roosevelt racketeers, plans had been made to ignore the court mandate with the "To Hell with the Constitution cry" on the ground that the right of the Supreme Court to declare acts of Congress unconstitutional is not found in the Constitution.

The uncertainty of what the Roosevelt administration is to say or do was exemplified Wednesday when at a press conference the President stated the dollar must be deflated more to balance our debts. Such a statement is nothing but suggestion of inflation and the stock market immediately rose several points. An hour later the same Roosevelt denied his former statement issued in the presence of more than 200 representatives of the press. The market broke and went to a new low, which would indicate that business has little or no confidence in what Roosevelt does or does not do.

The administration is on the rocks. The Democratic party never faced darker days because nothing but continued spending of public funds will stay a revolution. No one knows this more than Roosevelt leaders who are demanding passage of the four billion relief measure. Conditions in Washington are at fever heat. Roosevelt has not the physical ability, the moral background or the conservatism of leadership to keep the ship of state afloat. Hence the pre-arranged attack of Johnson on Long and Coughlin. We offer neither excuse for both of the Roosevelt standard, yet in well informed circles it is freely admitted that with the millions of followers behind these two, the future of the nation is anything but secure with Roosevelt in command. He has double-crossed his Socialistic followers and sees his throne threatened because of false promises of great security and riches. If the American people have no more between them than Franklin Roosevelt and must depend on his leadership, we might just as well enroll voluntarily under the Long-Coughlin banner than be drafted at the fall of the Roosevelt empire. God speed the day for a courageous Christian statesman with the spirit of '76 that can reclaim America in the name of all the people and for all the people now headed for demagogic bondage as the result of blind egotistical leadership.

Last week we called attention to the fact that President Roosevelt had permitted importation of wheat and oats along with great quantities of butter and eggs, all of which has lowered the price to producers.

We picked up an item from a southern paper that objects to the President letting down the bars to 300,000 more tons of Cuban sugar as well as thousands of tons of fresh vegetables, all in competition with southern growers. It's all a part of the New Deal, playing one class or section against the other. Increasing cost of living in the cities has forced the New Dealers to importations while at the same time pay farmers for not producing. Meantime imports tend to bear down on prices paid for all farm products.

We find some farmers are interested in the control of the milk situation by legislation, such as the Burke bill in Ohio. Others are opposed. Even with the AAA trying to control the milk situation in and about Chicago, little success has been made. Certain distributors oppose it and nine out of ten consumers are fighting it. In Ohio the Milk Commission has been careful to take care of the distributors in most every instance. New York State has the first milk control law and it was tested in the United States Supreme Court. Monday a decision was handed down that denied New York control over milk produced out of the state so far as prices paid to farmers were concerned.

The question of price for text books used in Ohio schools is yet unsettled. The law places this responsibility in the hands of the Governor, Secretary of State and Educational Director. Secretary of State Myers, during the White administration tried to get the price of text books reduced, but failed. Last week the commission met again but Educational Director B. O. Skinner, refused to second a motion made by Myers for fifty per cent discount on list price of text books. It is now 75 per cent. Governor Davey did not attend the meeting.

Gov. Davey has informed Farm Bureau leaders in Ohio that he does not like the sales tax but unfortunately it is a necessity. The Bureau asked for a selective-sales tax.

The Democrats in Greene county are having their factional troubles and stand divided on state and national issues, especially on patronage. An investigation of the O. S. & S. O. Home is or has been partially made if reports are correct. This comes from Gov. Davey acting on local complaints. Who is to be boss at the Davey pie counter is also causing much friction. The other evening the Roosevelt-Davey Democratic Club at a meeting in Xenia took the two Ohio Senators, Bulkeley and Donahey, both Democrats, to task for not backing the Roosevelt Communist-Socialist work relief bill. The young Democratic leaders may think they know what they are doing when they put Vic Donahey on the "spot." Vic is not moving an inch and since his vote against the McCarran amendment, has publicly stated the NRA is a complete failure, which ordinarily would make the young Democrats want to meet soon again and pass some more resolutions. We get a tip that among Democratic youngsters as they call themselves, were a number that have their names in at various places for jobs that must be passed on by Donahey and Bulkeley. One Democrat has provided both the Ohio Senators a list of those who were so anxious to go on record in the "padding" project. We can look for some interesting things. Twenty years experience around Vic Donahey in a public capacity convinces us that the Junior Ohio Senator takes no bluffs—not even from Presidents. He even ignored the "go down the line" order of President Roosevelt last week in voting against the McCarran amendment.

For twenty-five years the Democratic party has always disagreed with Republicans on the policy of subsidy for railroads or merchant marine. We wonder if there has been a change in heart among the rank and file of the Democratic party? The Democratic administration scrapped the airmail contracts which were nothing more than subsidies for various companies. As Wall street and big European financial interests control the World's shipping the statement of President Roosevelt urging a subsidy by this country must have been a shock to fellow Democrats. Could it be possible that part of the Roosevelt family millions are tied up in shipping companies? At least a Roosevelt name heads one of the American companies. Another case of the "Forgotten Man".

Historical Mileposts Of Ohio

By C. S. Van Tassel.

History repeating itself, at the close of the war of 1812, speculation and extravagance ran riot. Excessive developments and unrestricted investments brought on the usual crisis. State a Bank, in the State, was passed. Conditions which prevailed throughout the United States, necessarily obtained in Ohio. The eighty millions of the War cost the nation had been paid by Government notes at a twenty per cent discount.

One of the means of relief was the Bank of the United States, which Congress incorporated in April, 1816, with a capital stock of thirty-five million dollars, one-fifth to be subscribed by the Government. A half million of the notes of the State Bank was turned into the State Treasury.

The final result was that the United States Supreme Court, after Cincinnati, January 28, 1817, and a prolonged legal battle, ruled that the second branch at Chillicothe, October legislative acts of Ohio in question, 23, that year. Issuing notes of the State Bank, they acquired large amounts of the notes of the State Bank which were redeemed into the State Treasury.

Temperance Notes

Sponsored by Cedarville W. C. T. U.

We had almost forgotten the old song, "Where is my wandering boy tonight?" but it is being sung again since repeal. We can change it a little and sing now, "Where is my wandering girl tonight? Down in the licensed saloon."

We have been told that prosperity was just around the corner, but the New Deal saloon stands on the corner and does not aid prosperity in getting around the corner.

The cigaret habit is as hard to break as the morphine or cocaine habit. Very few ever quit. Tuberculosis in young women between the ages of 14 to 24 has almost doubled in the past 10 years, due largely to the smoking of cigarets.—From The Shield.

A Senate sub-committee of five members, headed by a known wet, but made up of a majority of men who have voted dry in the past, is pondering the fate of Senate Resolutions 44 and 45, introduced recently by Senator Sheppard.

This committee has been directed by the judiciary committee to study the two proposals (1) the restoration of the Eighteenth Amendment with slight changes or (2) the delegation of authority to Congress to prohibit the liquor traffic.

The Boston Herald, avowedly wet, reported that, "the bootlegger is more prosperous than ever he was during the fourteen years of prohibition." From the United Press comes this statement: "Unless the flow of bootleg liquor is checked, the United States will return to prohibition." So does banking need a Moses; so does agriculture. Indeed, just now we need so many 'Moses' that the Nile may be liberally sprinkled with arks of bulrushes and tar, and Pharoah must considerably increase his family of daughters in order to make the full supply of saviours!"

Sales Tax Only Pin Money So Far

County Auditor James J. Corbett has received the first distribution of the new sales tax revenue from Columbus. It is reported that some $12,000 in stamps have been sold in this county and returned to Columbus but so far only $1587.72 is all that has come back in the distribution. Of this amount $1018.84 goes to the county; the twelve townships get the magnificent sum of $132.47; Xenia city and the villages get a total of $421.41. Out of this amount Cedarville gets $18.14 and Clifton, $1.71. The salaries in connection with the collection at Columbus are placed at $775,015 annually.

The first five weeks sale of coupons reported to State Treasurer Harry S. Day, are reported at $4,717,894.18.

Groceries and meats are the biggest source of revenue amounting to $1,188,000. Department and dry goods stores, $632,288.00.

Cuyahoga county contributed one fourth of the tax collected so far with Hamilton county next at $641,000; Franklin, $430,000.

SCHOOL NEWS

Chinese Lecture Presented
Mr. Harry Sinks, a student of Cedarville College, presented an interesting talk in chapel Monday morning on the superstitions of the Chinese.

Mr. Sinks was born in Nanking, China while his parents were missionaries there, so he is well acquainted with the customs and superstitions of that country.

The seniors had charge of the opening of the chapel program. After group singing, Betty Tobias read the Scripture and led in the Lord's Prayer. Catherine Wolfe, Jane Frame, Elinor Hughes, and Oletis Jacobs presented two vocal numbers.

Supervisors Meet
Dr. C. H. Lane, District Federal Supervisor for Vocational Agriculture of Washington D. C. and C. S. Hutchinson, District State Supervisor of Columbus had a conference with Mr. George Monday afternoon for the purpose of making a study of the procedure Mr. George used in organizing the night classes of the community.

COLLEGE NEWS

The Sophomore boys won the finals in the intramural tournaments. The Freshmen were runners-up.

The Junior Class is preparing an interesting program to be presented in Chapel on the morning of March 13.

Dr. McChesney is in Columbus as the legislature is in session.

The Negative team will meet the Affirmative team from Xavier University on the evening of March 14 at the Alford Memorial Gymnasium. The admission is 10 cents.

Dr. Harriman of Dayton was a visitor of the College Monday.

The students greatly appreciate the efforts of the Civics Club to raise money for the Library. We are looking forward to the use of the new books.

INTERCOLLEGIATE DEBATE

Next Thursday night at 7:45 Cedarville College Debate team will meet Xavier University of Cincinnati in the local gym. The visitors will uphold the affirmative of the question: "Resolved, that all nations should agree to prevent the international shipment of arms and munitions."

The members of Cedarville's negative team are Harry Wallace, Donald Burkert, and Franklin Trubee.

The judge for the debate is Prof. Paul Brees, head of department of speech, of Wittenberg college. To help with expenses the small admission of ten cents will be charged. This is the only debate contest where a fee will be charged this year. It will encourage the debates if there is a large audience to address. Come to hear a live question discussed by men who have studied the question well. Thursday night, 7:45 p. m., gym.
