Dear Irene,

Congratulations on the first BSN graduating class from Cedarville College. I am sorry that I could not be in attendance as Medical College of Ohio also had commencements the same day.

Again, congratulations and best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

Dear Irene:

I received your recent invitation to the Tea in honor of the first graduates of the Department of Nursing at Cedarville College. May I offer my congratulations to the entire graduating class and to the nursing faculty on this achievement.

Regrettably, I will not be able to attend this occasion. Other previously scheduled commitments here on our campus preclude my attendance.

Again, on behalf of Ohio University School of Nursing I extend my congratulations to you and your school.

Yours truly,

Dear Dr. Alyn:

We received word that your baccalaureate program will graduate its first class this month and are writing to offer congratulations. We well realize the amount of effort and professional time which was involved in this achievement and feel sure that your institutional administration is gratified at your success.

Again congratulations on your accomplishment, and AACN wishes you many successful years to come.

Dear Irene:

Congratulations on your first graduating class! You, the faculty, and students are all to be commended for achievement of this significant milestone. God's blessings on you all!

Thank you for your nice invitation to tea on 7 June. Unfortunately, I will be out of town and thus unable to attend, but I appreciate being included. I hope your celebrations will be exciting and meaningful.

Best wishes from all of us to all of you.

Most sincerely,

Chair, Department of Nursing
Cedarville College
Cedarville, OH 45314

Dear Irene:

I am pleased to have had a part in approving the nursing program at Cedarville College and now to be able to congratulate you, the faculty and the first graduates of the program.

Please convey to the graduates my congratulations and best wishes in joining us in this profession.

I am sure, Irene you are pleased these first four years are over and from now on it is refining and improving a sound beginning, and of course seeking NLN accreditation.

Thank you for the invitation to tea however I have another commitment that I must attend.

Sincerely yours,

Lillian DeYoung, R.N., Ph.D.
