Yellow Jacket BLOG

January 17, 2022

Welcome back Jackets Fans!

I hope everyone had a great past week! It was another busy one for the men's basketball team as we took on two great teams in Walsh and Malone. First, on Thursday, we took on Walsh who was in sole possession of first place in the G-MAC. It was a great game that included multiple lead changes (and maybe the best crowd that I have experienced in my four years) but we eventually were able to pull away with a huge 76-73 win. Seniors Branden Maughmer and Conner TenHove were huge in the effort.

But, we didn't have much time to celebrate as we welcomed the defending conference champions Malone to town on Saturday. It was another great game that saw the lead change multiple times, but we came up just short losing 74-70. Senior Kollin Van Horn led the way with 19 points, including surpassing 1,000 points for his career. Although we couldn't close out the game like we hoped to, we know that if we make the adjustments that we need to that we can play with anyone.

I want to thank everyone who came out for both games last week. It's such a huge advantage when we have an environment as great as we did! We hope to see a similar crowd this Thursday against Tiffin (7:45 PM)! We will also travel to Ashland on Saturday for a huge road game at 3 PM.

Thank you for reading!

Go Jackets!
