Yellow Jacket BLOG

November 9, 2021

Hi Jacket Fans!

What's up Yellow Jacket fans!

My name is Braden Grant, and I have the privilege of writing the blog for your men's basketball team this year! I am a sophomore finance major from Beavercreek, Ohio, and I am looking forward to a great season and bringing you updates every week!

After finishing last year's historic season with an NCAA National Tournament game, the Jackets have re-loaded with some new faces alongside those returning to the team. We welcome Chris Rogers, a graduate student from Trevecca Nazarene University who will help compliment our back court, David Okpara, a redshirt-freshman transfer from Anderson University (SC) that will alter shots with his size and presence in the paint, and Matthew Veen, a sophomore transfer from Eastern Wyoming College, bringing some athleticism and energy to the front court.

Along with these three transfers we also have three incoming freshmen. Ethan Sellars, Kyle Thomas, and Brayden Wilkerson from Ashland, Kentucky, Cloverdale, Indiana, and Grand Rapids, Michigan, respectively. Ethan will join the back court with his shooting ability and quickness, and Kyle will look to improve scoring with his shot creating ability, all complemented by Brayden's ability to knock down outside shots. Lastly we also welcome graduate assistant T.J. Nagy, who attended and played basketball at Wright State University. These seven new additions have us very excited for the upcoming season!

Thanks for reading! Looking forward to posting updates throughout the season!

- BG

Braden Grant is a 6-foot-7 sophomore forward from Beavercreek, Ohio. He is a finance major in his second season with the Yellow Jackets after redshirting last year.
