

CEDARVILLE UNIVERSITY

Bach's Literacy Series

Educating Our Next Generation

Please join us for a musical story hour of the classic orchestral work The Carnival of the Animals by Camille Saint-Saëns, featuring Professor Carlos Elias and the Cedarville University Symphony Orchestra. Sponsored by the Department of Music and Worship, Alumni Relations, School of Education, and Admissions/Guest Services.

- WHAT Cedarville University Symphonic Orchestra under the direction of Carlos Elias presents:
The Carnival of the Animals by Camille Saint-Saëns
- WHO Open to alumni, school groups, and community families of all ages
- WHEN Two performance times:
Saturday, October 3, 2015, at 10 a.m.
Monday, October 5, 2015, at 1 p.m.
- WHERE Cedarville University Dixon Ministry Center Jeremiah Chapel
- COST This is a free event, but registration is required. Every family will receive a complimentary illustrated hardbound copy of The Carnival of the Animals (limit one book per household or classroom).

Register now at cedarville.edu/bachliteracy

CARLOS ELIAS

Carlos Elias has performed in solo recitals and in orchestras in the United States, El Salvador, Argentina, Bulgaria, Japan, and Korea, and he represented El Salvador at the World Philharmonic Orchestra under the baton of Lorin Maazel. He has participated in several music festivals, such as Congress of Strings, Aspen Music Festival (CO), Sarasota Music Festival (FL), Casals Festival (Puerto Rico), Affinis Music Festival (Japan), Western Slope Music Festival (CO), Corsi Internazionali di Musica (Italy), Raphael Trio Chamber Music Workshop (VT), and Music in the Mountains (CO). Before coming to Cedarville in August 2013, he was the Director of Strings and Orchestra at Colorado Mesa University. In addition, he was Concertmaster of the Grand Junction Symphony Orchestra and Artistic Director and Conductor of the Symphony in the Valley in Glenwood Springs (CO). He and his wife, pianist Andrea Arese-Elias, gave their New York debut at Weill Hall in Carnegie Hall in 2002. Their CD Let's Tango was named "Best of the Best" in the International category on eMusic in the U.S. and the United Kingdom. He is currently a Professor of Music and Conductor of the Symphony Orchestra at Cedarville University.