Research & Scholarship SYMPOSIUM

Cedarville University invites faculty, staff, and students to submit research and scholarly abstracts to be showcased at the 8th Annual Research and Scholarship Symposium on April 12, 2017, in the Stevens Student Center. Abstracts can be presented in three categories: poster, podium, and performance. Presentations given at national and regional conferences during the past year are welcome.

Abstracts must be submitted by March 29, 2017.

Abstracts will be reviewed by members of the Research Task Force, and authors will receive a decision by email within two weeks.
