Cedarville through the eyes of a farmer’s wife: the Martha McMillan Journals, 1867-1913

October 12, 2013
Cedarville Public Library
Cedarville through the eyes of a farmer’s wife: the Martha McMillan Journals, 1867-1913

American Women Writers class
January 13, 2015
Special Thanks:

Carol Lee, Senior Communications Specialist
Cedarville University

Rankin and Lenora MacMillan [deceased]
Grandson & Granddaughter-in-law of Martha McMillan

Harold Strobridge Cedarville Collection
Cedarville University Archives
Martha McMillan’s Cedarville
Cedarville downtown, 1908

looking North
Cedarville Main Street
looking South/Nagley Hardware
Cedarville downtown

Centennial Parade, 1916
Cedarville downtown

Centennial Parade, 1916
Miller Street
looking north from Railroad street
Cedarville Main Street
South of Hardware store
Reformed Presbyterian Church, 1853
N. Main & Church Sts.
Now Alford Auditorium
Reformed Presbyterian Church, 1853-interior

N. Main & Church Sts.
Reformed Presbyterian Church, 1902
N. Main & Cedar Sts.
Reformed Presbyterian Church, 1902-interior
N. Main & Cedar Sts.
United Presbyterian Church, 1888

N. Main & Chillicothe St.
Methodist Church
Chillicothe St.
Cedarville Public School

School St. & Xenia Ave (Grove St.)

“Union School” “Grove St. School”
Cedarville Public School

Built 1868 – Demolished 1934
Bridge Street School

_African-American students_
Chew Building: NW Corner of Main St. & Xenia Ave.

pre-dates “Beans n Cream” building (1921)
Chew Building: NW Corner of Main St. & Xenia Ave.
Grand Army of the Republic Hall
Civil War veterans
Orr building
SE corner Main & Chillicothe Sts.
First framed building – current Subway site
Foster House Hotel

east side of S. Main St. - first gasoline car in Cedarville Cedarville Opera House

built 1888
Nagley Building

current Cedarville Hardware
Nagley Grocery
Nagley building
Bird Building

site of US Bank
Bird’s Variety Store

Bird Building
John Marshall melons
Main St. [Foster House Hotel in background]
E. Waddle - 1912

corner of N. Main & Chillicothe Sts. Harriman Hall in background
Livery

behind current Senior Center
Murray Harness Shop
Main St.
Townsley Harness Shop
S. Main St.
Cedarville Flouring Mill
along Massie Creek above the falls
Cedarville Flouring Mill

along Massie Creek
171 S. Main St.
pre-Civil War house
Bailey Gas Station
Cedarville College first classes – Fall 1894

Rented from Dr. David Steele– Route 42 East Cedarville College Alford Gymnasium converted 1902
Opera House

_Cedarville College Graduation 1914_
Cedarville Railroad Station

east of Main St.  Double tracks – current bike path
Cedarville Railroad Station

east of Main St. - Looking east
Cedarville Railroad Station

train arriving from east – London
Cedarville Railroad Station

train arriving from the west – Xenia, 1909
Cedarville Telegraph Office

west of Main St.
Cedarville Telegraph Office

west of Main St. - passing train
Special Thanks:

Carl Brandon, former Director of Media Services
Cedarville University Centennial Library

Harold Strobridge Cedarville Collection
Cedarville University Archives
Martha McMillan’s Cedarville
Cedarville through the eyes of a farmer’s wife:
the Martha McMillan Journals, 1867-1913
Saturday, October 12, 2013, 1:30 – 3:00 p.m.
Cedarville Public Library