REQUIEM, K. 626 ............................................................. Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756–1791)
I. Chorus (Soprano Solo)
   1. Requiem
   Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them; to Thee is due a song of praise, O God, in Zion, and to Thee a vow shall be paid in Jerusalem; grant my prayer; to Thee all flesh shall come. Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

   2. Kyrie
   Lord, have mercy on us. Christ, have mercy on us. Lord, have mercy on us.

II. Chorus
   1. Dies irae
   The day of wrath, that day of grief shall change the world to glowing ash, as David and Sibyl tell.

   2. Quantus tremor
   How great a quaking shall there be, when on that day the judge shall come to weigh man's deeds in each detail.

III. Solo Quartet
   1. Tuba mirum
   The trumpet mighty blast shall send, through all the regions of the dead, to summon all before the throne.

   2. Mors stupebit
   Then death and nature dazed shall be, when from their graves all men shall rise, to answer to their judges charge.

   3. Liber scriptus
   The Book of Life shall open be, in which each smallest act is found, on which the world shall face its judge.

   4. Judex ergo
   When then the judge shall take his place, whatever lies hid shall come to light,
   no act unpunished shall remain.

   5. Quid sum
   What then shall I, poor wretch, reply, upon what patron shall I call, when scarce the just man stands secure?
IV. Chorus
Rex tremendae
O King of fearful majesty, who all that need Thee savest free, O fount of love, my savior be.

V. Solo Quartet
1. Recordare
Remember, loving Jesus then, for me you walked your life's hard way; condemn me not on that dread day.

2. Quaerens
In search of me you sat down weary redeemed me on Thy cross of paid; let such great toil not be in vain.

3. Juste
Of God's strict vengeance righteous judge, the gift of sins' forgiveness grant, ere day of full accounting fall.

4. Ingemisco
I groan as one of crime accused, with shame of sin my face is red; Thy pardon, God, I humbly beg.

5. Qui Mariam
'Twas you to Mary pardon gave, 'twas you gave ear to robber's plea, 'twas you to me besides gave hope.

6. Preces
Unworthy are my prayerful pleas, yet in Thy goodness mercy grant, lest fire unending be my fate.

7. Inter oves locum
Amongst Thy sheep O grant me place, and from the goats remove afar, to stand with those upon Thy right.

VI. Chorus
1. Confutatis
When sentence on the damned is passed, and to piercing flames are sent, amongst the blessed call my name.

2. Oro supples
Abased and deeply bowed I pray, my heart full crushed as though it were ash, make Thine my destiny's concern.
VII. Chorus
1. Lacrimosa
A day of tears is that dread day, on which shall rise from ashen dust to judgment true each guilty man.

2. Huic
Then spare this soul, O God, we pray, O loving Savior, Jesus Lord, grant Thou to them Thy rest. Amen.

VIII. Chorus (Solo Quartet)
Domine Jesu
O Lord Jesus Christ! O King of glory! Deliver the souls of all the faithful departed from the pains of hell and from the deep pit. Deliver them from the lion's mouth, that hell not swallow them up, that they fall not into darkness: but may Thy standard-bearer, holy Michael, bring them into holy light, which of old to Abraham Thou promised, and his seed.

IX. Chorus
Hostias
Sacrifices and prayers of praise to Thee, O Lord, we offer. Receive them for those souls, whose memory on this day we keep; grant them, O Lord, to pass from death to that life, which of old you promised to Abraham and to his seed.

V. Chorus
1. Sanctus
Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts: heaven and earth are filled with Thy glory.

2. Hosanna
Hosanna in the highest!

VI. Solo Quartet (Chorus)
Benedictus
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest!

VII. Chorus (Soprano Solo)
1. Agnus Dei
Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world, grant them eternal rest. Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world, grant them rest eternal.

2. Lux aeterna
Let perpetual light shine upon them, O Lord, in the company of Thy saints forever, because Thou art forgiving.

3. Requiem
Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
BIOGRAPHIES

PETER STAFFORD WILSON, Guest Conductor
Celebrating his 10th anniversary season as music director of Ohio's Springfield Symphony Orchestra, Peter Stafford Wilson is one of the most exciting and talked about conductors of his generation. Concurrently, he holds the post of music director of the Westerville Symphony. His current season also includes numerous performances with the Columbus Symphony Orchestra and Columbus Symphony Youth Orchestra. Mr. Wilson is the recipient of a 2010 Columbus Symphony Orchestra Music Education Award, given in recognition of his 20 years of dedication to the orchestra's educational programming.

Peter Stafford Wilson's leadership of the Springfield Symphony Orchestra continues to elicit praise from the public, musicians, and press. Its 2005 Agriculture and the Arts Growing Together brought international attention to the organization, as did the sequel, American Made: Celebrating Our Manufacturing Heritage, which premiered in November 2007. The orchestra's innovative series, "Night Lights," has enjoyed steadily increasing sales and attendance. The recent endowment of the music director chair, with gifts totaling one million dollars, is further testimony to the community's expanding support. Mr. Wilson and the SSO are the recipients of a 2009–2010 ASCAP Award for Adventurous Programming.

From 1990 to 2008, Peter Stafford Wilson held the posts of assistant and associate conductor of the Columbus Symphony Orchestra. In Columbus, his duties included the leadership of the orchestra's nationally recognized educational projects, which have been featured at national conferences of the American Symphony Orchestra League and Music Educators National Conference. He led programs on all of the orchestra's classical and pops subscription series, and played a major role in its 1997 Viva Vienna Festival. Subsequently, he was named artistic director of the orchestra's Festival Weeks @ The Southern, for which his innovative programming was consistently praised. Mr. Wilson is also music director of the Columbus Symphony Youth Orchestra, which he has regularly led in local and regional concerts. The CSYO has performed at the national conferences of the ASOL and MENC and at the 1998 International Youth Orchestra Festival in Banff, Alberta. In the summer of 1999, he and the CSYO toured Austria, the Czech Republic, and Germany, where they maintain an exchange relationship with the Heinrich Schütz Konservatorium in Dresden. During the summer of 2005, Mr. Wilson led the CSYO on a highly acclaimed tour of The People's Republic of China, playing to capacity audiences in Beijing, Hefei, Hong Kong, and Shanghai, as well as in an historic performance atop the Great Wall of China.

In addition to his myriad activities with the Springfield and Columbus Symphonies, Peter Stafford Wilson's current season includes his continuing duties as music director of the Westerville Symphony, a community/collegiate orchestra based at Otterbein College, his debut with the Wheeling Symphony Orchestra, and another series of performances with the Erie Philharmonic. He also leads 20 holiday performances of The Nutcracker with BalletMet Columbus in both Detroit and Columbus.

A native of North Carolina, Peter Stafford Wilson studied at the University of Cincinnati's College-Conservatory of Music, where his primary mentor was the late Thomas Schippers. During his years at CCM, he became a leading exponent of contemporary music, often collaborating with faculty and student composers, including the Conservatory's Visiting Professor of Composition, Lukas Foss. Mr. Wilson also studied at the Aspen Music School, where he studied with Dennis Russell Davies, Eastern Music Festival (on whose faculty he subsequently served), Pierre Monteux School, Boris Goldovsky Summer Opera Institute, and Rome's Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia, where he was associated with Franco Ferrara. After his advanced studies, he was appointed assistant, and later associate, conductor of the Canton Symphony Orchestra. The Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra appointed him regional pops conductor for the 1995 summer season, during which he led the orchestra in a series of widely acclaimed performances in Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky. Mr. Wilson also enjoyed a multi-year artistic relationship with The Cleveland Orchestra, often serving as cover conductor for Severance Hall and Blossom Music Center events. In 1996, the American Symphony Orchestra League featured him in its Conductor Preview event, a program that encourages emerging conducting talents in the United States.

Peter Stafford Wilson has guest conducted the orchestras of Bozeman, Charlotte, Chautauqua, Dallas, Detroit, Erie, Indianapolis, Kansas City, Louisville, North Carolina, Phoenix, Roanoke, Seattle, Syracuse, Tucson, Tulsa, West Virginia, Wheeling, and Youngstown. He also led the Independence Day Concert with Peter Nero's Philly Pops Orchestra and the Northeastern Pennsylvania Philharmonic's highly popular "Awesome Classics" series, as well as programs with Orquesta Filarmónica de Montevideo and Hong Kong Sinfonietta. No stranger to the lyric theatre, Mr. Wilson has held the positions of principal conductor of South Carolina's Opera Charleston and music director of the Ohio Light Opera and conducted performances at Spoleto Festival USA, Young Artists Opera Theater, College Light Opera, Canton Lyric Opera, and Otterbein College Opera Theatre.
